

? Note before ordering commission

-Every commissions you make should come with references regarding the character, details, background, poses,etc, description of whatever may appear in the picture as a whole

-Please make sure you're 16 or above before ordering commission

- When you make a commission, if possible, please give me a detailed description of their characteristics, personality and background to make the process of designing the character smoother. If during the design process you can't provide references, there'd be a $5 fee in addition

- Designs for a singular individual character will count as their own commission. A separate character will count as another commission, following similar price chart

! Price of commission might changes and fluctuate depending on how complex it is

? If you have any questions about the commission, please don't hesitate to ask me

! Accepted commission requests

Furry, human, monster, LGBTQ+ art and characters, all races, light gore, blood, all fandoms are just fine, ecchi/soft erotic art,etc

Mecha girls are valid options, along with simpler designs like G1 Arcee

! Not accepting these requests

Commissions made to attack a specific individual or community, depicting contents such as racism, homophobia or to pander to a specific religious belief,etc. No heavy gore, full mecha (examples: the excessive detailing Gundam designs or Bayformers. Or combined mechas)

And in the meantime, no plan of NSFW

★Terms of service

1. Please pay ahead 50% for the price of your commission once it's begun. Once it's finished, I'll send you the complete art with watermarks, at which point you can pay for the other half of the work and afterward, I will send you a google drive folder containing the actual image. Price's negotiable
2. On the illustration will be my signature/name, you can not edit, erase or cover it up, especially when you post it online (it's not necessary to credit me if the name's visible but it will be much appreciated). Aside from that, please don't trace or re-edit the image. You may use the picture for any other personal purposes (A profile picture as an example), if used under a public project (Video, or for entertainment purposes,etc), please credit me still, thank you

You are, of course, allowed to use a character design for anything you'd like. The reference sheet may still include my name.

3. After the work is finished, i may ask you for permission to post the artwork, you have the right to decline
4. I still have my rights to decline commission requests and works that i'm not interested in, even ones fall under those categories that i'd accept
5. In urgent situations, please set your deadline at least 11 days ahead so i can work out my schedule if possible
6. Refund's possible as an option if I can not satisfy your request. If you get a full render commission and only the sketch or color are up to your liking, I can refund part of the work. I can't guarantee a full refund for the whole commission, so please communicate clearly and thoroughly if you have any criticisms in mind during the whole process
7. Once the work is done, if there are details that need fixing, small ones will be free of charge, bigger and more major details may cost $ 3-5. During the drawing process, detail fixing and adjustment will be free if a misunderstanding between us may occur

8. Illustrations and commissions for commercial usage can have my name removed and will be 50% more the total price, though credit is still appreciated
