

Historical Preservation Foundation
Board of Directors

Marcia A. Skelton

Born and raised in Eureka, California Marcia attended Eureka High School and College of the Redwoods. Her professional career began in 1982 when she moved to San Francisco Bay Area starting work with Wadsworth Publishing becoming a key part of the editorial staff until 1996. Seeking new challenges, she moved into the professional staffing field and advanced to several high level managerial assistant positions until leaving in 2020 to start work in the field of construction as an Accounting Clerk where she is currently employed.

Marcia is a 25-year member of the Native Sons of the Golden West, Redwood Parlor #66 and has an extensive Native Sons career. As a member of Redwood Parlor, she has held several positions: Parlor President, Recording Secretary, Assistant Financial Secretary and Newsletter Editor

At the Grand Parlor (State) level she is currently serving as Chairman to the Board of Grand Trustees and Chairman to the Information Services Committee and served in numerous committee positions.

Marcia met her husband Duane in 1990 and they married in 1993 at Yosemite National Park. Marcia's interests are cooking, especially BBQ, enjoying time at their cabin in the coastal redwoods of Woodside, California and raising English Springer Spaniels. She is especially very passionate about the history of California and preserving it.