To identify the areas of your life currently undergoing significant transformation, we would look at the current transiting planets, particularly the slower-moving ones like Pluto, Neptune, Uranus, and Saturn, as they tend to bring about deeper, more long-lasting changes when they interact with key points in your natal chart.

This transit could also bring challenges such as power struggles with authority figures or the need to dismantle old structures that no longer serve your higher purpose. The changes might be intense, but they are pushing you to step into a more empowered and authentic version of your professional self.
