

=Alright! It's been a few days since Molly got Sophie to start working at the library, and she's def doing the day to day delivery runs and her nights run p long honestly? Since she's picking up Sophie , dropping off suggestion box stuff , etc... honestly, though uh=

Molly *One of these days she's just gonna... actually take a look at the notes in the suggestion box? are there actually a lot of those yet? *

Molly *technically this would be mail crimes, but , hey, this isn't actually mail so she can technically get away with it *

=There are! It looks like there's quite an accumulation of things. Some people have managed to misunderstand the point of them entirely from the looks of it. It seems like there's a lot of questions being shoved in there, too. Things like, does amy like me back? Is the weather going to be good tomorrow? I keep seeing you and the delivery girl out together, are you two an item?=-

Molly *thinking as she reads these... * [First off, Mono wouldn't know! second off, if you're asking Mono, Amy probably doesn't know you like her , please ask. And can-- can Mono predict the weather?]

*then she reads the third note *

[oh no]

Molly [Okay okay, I could always just , y'know, eat the suggestion paper that's surely healthy. But-- no, Mono's gotta see this one, I think, if I leave behind any evidence that I'm playing around in the suggestion bin then I'm done for!] *she puts these back in the bag she uses to collect the suggestions and starts heading on over to the tower? *

Altaria: chirps up Hey, any good ones in there?

Molly *eep! * "Oh! Uh, you know, people just asking for romantic advice and answers to the local gossip..." [a critical flaw in this box design] "...I'm not the only one who reads through these, huh? B|"

Altaria: I don't read any of them, but I noticed you taking a peek. I figured I'd ask if there were any good ideas in there. It sounds like there's even more than I expected...

Altaria: What kind of local gossip is there?

Molly "Well. Yeah, people are asking for advice in here? Which... I think you're supposed to pitch ideas.

Molly *...she huffs * "...Someone wanted to know if Amy liked them back, and someone else asked... if Mono is dating the delivery girl -n-" [that would be me]

Altaria: Well, is she dating the delivery girl?

Altaria: Though, Amy certainly doesn't like him back. I can answer that one.

Molly "Well. I dont think that Mono has asked the delivery girl out. Or vice versa. <n<"

Altaria: It sounds like there's interest, though!

Molly "The delivery girl likes them well enough! But she hasn't asked how Mono feels yet" [I am 99% sure that everyone knows that I am the delivery girl, but I will refer to myself in third person for that 1% edge case,]

Altaria: Has the delivery girl scoped out her competition yet or is she going in blind with this?

Molly "Competition... My fluffy friend, you realize like, half the city wants to at least kiss the dragon, right?"

Molly "And are you part of that half? uvu"

Altaria: Oh no, no. Maybe being a dragon takes away some of the mystique, but I'm not part of your competition.

Molly "Faaiir. And well, Mono's got two very good friends that are super close to them, and some admirers? I dunno how their relationship is but, I think that the competition isn't really the issue here."

Altaria: And, what do you think the issue is?

Molly "Mono's not really too aware about people liking them romantically, and, they're also a big people pleaser."

Molly "So I think that they'd date people for all the wrong reasons. Outta curiosity on how dating works, or to please the other person but... not really take their own feelings into consideration about it."

Altaria: Have you considered giving her a book about dating and healthy relationships, perhaps?

Molly *oh * "...I think I need two copies of that book. But that is a good idea. They do love reading!"

Molly "Is there a book shop close by?" [This probably isn't a library book, honestly]

Altaria: A book store would be a great idea! I know that a few general stores have a nice selection of books. But, you know..... she spreads her fluffy wings out I do carry a few books on me as well, and I have one that might catch your interest. plucks out a somewhat thin looking book And, as luck might have it, I have wares for sale!

Molly "...you're a book dealer. Alright, let's see your goods." *screaming internally, but she takes a look at the thin book... *

=The book is called 'Relationships for Agreeable Pokemon'=

Altaria: uvu It covers asking people out, dating, sex, commitment ceremonies....

Molly "...who's the author"

Altaria: Me, Camelot! u<u/

Altaria: she does a twirl and poses

Molly "Incredible. Since you're so confident, you don't happen to have a second copy of this book, do you? <u<"

Altaria: Not yet! I only have the two copies at the moment, but I'm working on transcribing more.

Molly "well... that's fine! Let's see what else you've got Camelot." *she looks at the titles of the other books! *

= "Getting Custody of the Kids: Helpful Legal Advice for All Situations" "All About Berries: A Simple Guide" and "How the Fuck Does Sex Work?" =

Camelot: I work with a few authors of self help books.

Molly [...NOT CONFIDENCE INSPIRING. Though. The sex book.]

Molly "I'll take 'How the fuck does sex work', too."

Camelot: Excellent! That will be 10,000 poke for the two!

Molly [holy shit] "...You drive a hard bargain, ma'am. How does 8,000 poke sound, instead?"

Camelot:I can let them go for 9,000...

Molly "Hm! Alright." *breaking the bank a bit, but it's not so bad this week *

Molly *she pulls out 9000 poke, books are so expensive... *

Camelot: takes the money and smiles Thank you for your support! Your continued patronage is what lets us do the work we want to do and keep creating!

Mottie06/05/2019

Molly *stows the books in the cart * "You're welcome! You should totally lemme know when you've got more books in the future uvu. For now though, I have to go deliver the suggestions!"

Camelot: Have a good daaaay~ waves

Molly *waves, buhbye! , and then she runs off to the tower for REALS *

=Off into the tower!! There is a beheeyem behind the desk!=

Molly [Usually it's Telli behind the desk , I think?] "Hey Telli! I've got today's suggestions n such, do you know where Mono is?"

Tellus: *blinks a few times, looking a bit concerned at that*oh! Hello, Molly. They're in the kitchen right now. Would you like me to take you there?

Molly [wonder what's on his mind..] "Sure!"

Tellus: gets up and walks to the other side of the front room, heading down a small passage They're cooking dinner right now, but I'm sure they have time for a visit.

Molly *following! With the suggestion bag and ... two books on top of that? * "I don't mind either way, I got em a gift too, so I should drop that off at least! "

Tellus: Oh! A gift! That's so nice of you! :>

Tellus: I'm glad Momo's made so many friends since we got here.

Molly "Well, you all made it happen! You did make a city after all"

Molly "How's Sophie doing today, by the way? :>"

Tellus: Yes, that is true!" nods a few times, smiling She's doing good, she's very good at organizing the books for projects and finding relevant information in them!

Molly "Reading has always been her strong suit, I'm glad!"

Tellus: Oh yes!! into the kitchen Momo, Molly is here to visit. Would you like to invite her to dinner?

Mono: ..oh!; uh.. *checking over the stuff they have made * I.. think we have enough here...

Molly "It's okay! I came a little late today, if you don't have enough I don't wanna starve y'all!"
*...is there a free space to put the bag down *

=the counter! =

Mono: ah yeah sorry X)a;

Molly *then she puts this on the counter! * "I actually picked up some books today! One for you and one for Sophie"

Tellus: over to investigate the food, aaaa, it smells really nice today!

Mono: * finishing that up, ok* help yourself Telli! :>

Mono: you picked /me/ up a book? that's very thoughtful!

Molly "Yeah! I was thinkin about how you mentioned you've never been in a relationship before and such and I figured well..." *she holds up the relationship book now ! * "You might like to read up on it!"

Mono: ..huh! >:o ...thankyou! *takes it! *

Molly [phew!] "You're welcome! :>"

Molly *she scratches the side of her head * "Y'know, I hate to distract from dinner but I'd like to offer a suggestion, actually!"

Mono: hm?

Mono: *taking the suggestion slips now *

Molly "Books are really expensive and the person who was selling them said that it took a long time to transcribe even one book. Do you think there's a way to y'know... make books faster? That way everyone can have their own collection :>"

Tellus: what sort of food is for dinner, though, he turns his attention towards this again

Mono: hmm! we'd need someone specialized on that. *looks like some sort of fresh pasta *

Tellus: Yes, delicious!! He takes some of the pasta and sits down at the table

Mono: I'll have to ask around! *checking these slips now! *

Molly [ha ha I'm in danger!]

Molly *but she lets them read the slips *

=There's a lot that are just questions, but there are a few suggesting things like more well availability since sometimes, it takes a lot of time to get to the local ones currently available. There's also a number asking if you're single, a number that seem like just..... introductions??? Like, hello, my name is x, I am new to your city, it seems very lovely. There's also a number of questions about if you're dating the delivery girl since she drags you out so much.=

Tellus: Please, have something to eat, Molly! :>

Molly "oh! Okay" *she goes to get herself some pasta too! noodly goodness *

Mono: *sorts them into two piles as they read em... ok.. and then picks up the more relevant suggestion things and takes them to the table * we can go over these after dinner! uvu/ *and then gets some pasta for themselves, good. *

Molly "Did anything in particular stick out?"

Molly *she starts eating after she asks! How's the food? *

Mono: yep! *it's pretty tasty! *

Mono: X) I'm not going to discuss this stuff over dinner though so!

Molly "Alrighty, so, How did your days go?" *to both Tellus and Mono ey *

Mono: they went alright! we'll be getting another mailperson to help you out soon ovo and dividing districts accordingly.

Molly "I'm glad! That'll give me more free time for sure :>" *nodnods! *

Mono: yes! X) It might be a few more days. but we'll be able to get you the new route plans by tomorrow.

Molly "It'll take me a little bit to commit that to memory and practice the timing! So that's fine"

Tellus: Things have been quieter than normal around here today, which is nice.

Molly "The mail route ran a little long , but I did meet an author today, so that was neat!"

Mono: *nods! hmm *

Molly "So what's the new mailperson like? If you found an exact one that is!" [They might be looking over candidates still]

Mono: still looking! I'll let you know when we narrow it down, since they are going to be working with you, your opinion is pretty important in this!

Molly "Yeah! Thanks again for helping me out with this by the way, it means a lot"

Mono: of course!

Molly "Hey, is Sophie still busy right now?" [I might set aside a bit of din for her...]

Molly [Doc too, actually, huh]

Tellus: I'm sure she'll be down soon! Doc usually shows up a few minutes late to dinner.

Molly "Just as long as the food's not cold by then -u-"

Tellus: I'm sure he'll be down in-

Sophia: hurries into the kitchen Oh dear, I'm sorry we're late!

Doc: strolling on in!! Hello, Molly!

Molly "Hey! Sophie! Doc! :> How're you two doin?"

Sophia: I had a very productive and nice day!

Doc: Yes, it was quite good. getting something to eat

Molly "Good! Oh! Does everyone wanna hear about the author I met? uwu" [everyone here is a huge bookworm except for me]

Sophia: You met an author today? sitting down with a little bit of food, oh my

Molly "Yeah! She said she makes self help books! I actually got two of em :>"

Sophia: That must have cost a whole lot, Molly! looks a bit worried But, they must be really nice ones for you to have bought them!

Molly "Oh, definitely!" *she holds the book up, the front cover facing away from soph * "I was thinking of giving it to you as a gift"

Molly "But it's rude to read at the table uwu, so after dinner"

Sophia: Oh! Oh, that's-that's really nice of you, Molly.

Molly *beams! then puts the book back down * "I do my best! uvu"

Molly *she finishes her dinner pretty quickly! it turns out running around all day... makes you pretty hungry tbh, but she doesn't ask for seconds! *

Tellus: he's gathered up the dishes, I am taking care of cleaning things up!!

Mono: *going over the suggestions again hmm *

=Wells are a big one, people are mentioning they need more candles and oil in town, so maybe there's a better way to do things in that regard....-

Molly "Soooo how're those suggestions? <o<"

Mono: interesting! there's some good points that we'll need to work on.

Molly "Our work is never done! " *she laughs a bit *

Tellus: There's always ways to make improvements!!

Molly "Is there anything you wanna work on right away? >:o"

Mono: the water! that's a vital resource

Tellus: I'll start looking into the water tables in the area right away!

Sophia: HHHHH, I DON'T WANNA GO HOME WITH THIS GOING ON, I LOVE RESEARCH

Molly *looking at Sophie * "...You're doing the static thing again, Soph"

Mono: there's also candles and oil :<a so making and distributing them might be another thing to look into

Molly "You could always have a burning bright fire type in every room uvu" *ha ha bad joke *

Tellus: Goodness, we'd need so many fire types...

Mono: it'd be hard on them..

Molly [ooagh] "...What about you, Mono? Sophie and I both can glow in our own ways and we can recreate fire, but... You glow when you're doing your work and such! Do you know how that works at all?"

Mono: ...oh! well I'm a bit of an energy generator. X> light tends to happen as a byproduct of that!

Molly "Yeah! You mentioned a power conduit or something before, too." *looking at Sophie * "...I wonder if there's a way to capture excess energy..."

Sophia: I'd be worried that it would cause a bit of harm to Monochrome if we tried too much.'

Molly "Well, no! I was thinking more of you, Soph. You're sparking all the time <n<"

Mono: I've never run out of energy before :< so I've never really tested the limits of that either.

Molly "But it'd be neat if all the people who could make energy and light just chipped in when they could, I think!"

Sophia: I know that, if I spark too much, I start to get a headache, and it's really gross feeling...

Molly "Yeah :<! I dont think the burden should land on any one person's shoulders, no matter how strong they are"

Molly "But beyond candles and oil... I dunno really know where else to start X)"

Mono: I think just making sure people get ample amount should be fine rather than trying to dive into new energy sources

Molly "Faaiir... how do we handle it now?"

Mono: by checking in with the makers!

Molly "Mmm... That sounds like a lot of extra legwork <n<"

Mono: I'll go look into it unu

Doc: I can start writing up a survey, too. It might be easier if we handed out something in paper for pokemon to do rather than going door to door.

Molly "How are you going to make so many surveys though?;"

Doc: I have a pen and ink I am quite fond of.

Doc: he beams And, also, I can use telekinesis.

Molly "...Not for hundreds of surveys;,"

Doc: I'll show you how I work sometime. X>

Molly "Yeah, one of these days |D" [I'm not sure if I should be scared of doc or not holy frick]

Doc: :) Certainly!

Tellus: finishes up the dishes, putting them away There we go! Everything is clean!

Molly "Oh right Sophie! Your book!"

Molly *she slides that over that way *

Sophia: picks up the book and stares at the cover, fluffing out entirely before setting it down and sliding it back over, face down Oh! No thank you! ovo"

Molly *she sighs, ohh well! * "Alas, I will have to keep it for myself, in the living room uvu"

Sophia: Why does it have to live in the living room, Molly?!

Molly "As a reminder! :D"

Sophia: covers her face in her hands, bright red, oh noooooo

Molly *She's just, absolutely beaming and not caring that she did this in front of basically Mono and the twins... *

Tellus: What is in that book...? stepping over

Molly *...hm... she slides this away from Tellus * "You can read this when you're older uvu" [more of that joking ...]

Tellus: blinks a few times, bwuh?!

Mono: ...:< *leans over annnd swipes it /hm/ *

Molly *she resists, but only for a second! you've got this book now *

=This is a book all about sex, both how it works, tips and tricks, and ways to get around awkwardness and find out what your partner really enjoys. It suggests conversation and communicating feelings openly.=

Molly "Well? B>"

Mono:oh I get it! :> you want sophie to be more open about this?

Mono: *hands it back ok! *

Sophia: AAAAAAAAAA

Molly *she nods and takes the book! * "Yes I do uvu"

Mono:*PICKS UP THEIR OWN BOOK and flips though it HM *you should probably just ask to date her then if you're interested enough to go through all that trouble? ,;<a

Molly [MoNO] "I--" *omg she just cracks up * "I mean, that's definitely a valid suggestion!"

Molly "But, I got you a relationship book too! As you can see. I don't think that means I want to date both of you uvu;"

Mono: oh not at all! :> the one you got her is much more in-depth after all

Molly *she looks flustered again... * "I...Mono... |D" *then she just. clams up *

Mono: no worries! I wish you the best of luck! ovo *pats! *

Mono: So I understand completely, no worries! uvu *pats molly it's all good! *

Molly *blushing a lot tho-- * "Mono, I... the real reason I got you that book... is cause I like you a lot?!"

Mono::< oh?

Molly "Yeah! I was just... afraid that since you've never been in a relationship before, you'd be more curious in how a relationship works, or wanna just make me happy, rather than go out with me cause you like me back?;"

Mono: ... ,;< ?? No I wouldn't date someone because of that. *doesn't seem to entirely get what you're saying here molly *

Doc: rests his elbows on the table, this is quite fascinating. What a situation....

Tellus: blinks a few times, huh.

Sophia: she is honestly in bsod mode at the moment, check back later

Molly "So you'd date someone if you had mutual feelings with them? Not just out of curiosity?"
*her ears flick up, she even looks a bit relieved *

Molly "...I must sound like a total fool right now;;"

Mono: :< well it'd be silly to date anyone otherwise, wouldn't it?

Molly "You're right, I just... I'm sorry for not trusting you more about that? I should ask... how do you feel about me?;"

Mono: you're a very good friend! :>

Mono: I like you quite a bit!

Molly "...would you be interested dating me?"

Mono: ...oh, no! Sorry, no thankyou I'm good X>

Molly *laughs oh my gosh *

Molly "I got myself worked up for like, an entire week about this. And all I had to do was heckin ask |D"

Doc: he reaches over and pats Mono's arm, ahaa You're a very- pauses, then frowns
..... SQUINTS

Mono: ..??

Doc: What did you do?!"

Tellus: What do you mean, Daucus? tilts his head to the side

Molly "...huh?"

Doc: FROWNING, his face flushed Unacceptable, what happened? I unconditionally object to this. blinkity fingers at Tellus

Tellus: blinkity fingers back, looking confused??

Mono: ??? *also confused???

Molly "They're doing the telepathy thing again aren't they..." [blinky lights yea? Sophie mentioned this before]

Tellus: hands over his mouth, OH!! Yes, we did help out a very nice sylveon named Kila a little while ago... She was struggling with cute charm, so we thought it would work out if she used skill swap with Momo. ovo' Since they don't have a gender, so it wouldn't be a problem!

Molly "...I'm... but... it worked on me?"

Molly "I'm not sure?"

Doc: I refuse to be a part of this. I am not certain if it worked on you, Molly... Did you come into physical contact with them?

Molly "They pat my head |D"

Mono: oh no! I honestly thought it would be neutralized D:>;

Doc: pulls at his face with his hands, this is unbelievable

Molly "So like... what are we gonna about this then? ono"

Tellus: Don't worry! I learned skill swap as well. I'll swap with them and everything should clear, I think!

Molly "Then you have cute charm, Tellus?"

Tellus: It won't matter once you and Sophia go home. ovob

Doc: You had this option from the start and you still decided that Mono was the better choice.....

Tellus: It- it seemed like a very rational plan at the time! ovo'

Doc: no, I am not going to try to understand why it would right now

Tellus: takes a step away from the table so he's away from everyone I'm going to swap with you, alright, Momo?

Molly *shaking her head, this is just ridiculous *

Mono: sure!;

Tellus: his skill swap is much less impressive and far less fancy than Kila's, alas! Welcome to having telepathy, Mono.

Mono: *that is /weird./ *

Tellus: There! ovo' See! Everything is under control now. aaaa, what a way to find out!!

Molly "...Are we good now?"

Mono: yes!

Molly *sinks in her chair * "...I should probably take Sophia home X)" Mono: yes! X) that would be.. a good idea..

Sophia: how am I even supposed to process today, hfjkdsf

Molly *sophie are you still static *

Sophia: absolutely

Molly "Okay, How am I going to take Sophie home, I can't pick her up at all -n-"

Molly [literally, in this case]

Mono: ...hang on a minute. *they head out! *

Molly [ok then!]

Mono: *comes back with some thick gloves * here!

Molly *takes them and puts them on? * "...this is going to be wild"

Molly *okay, she just... hoists Sophia up, she's definitely strong enough to do this *

=You have obtained one Sophia!=

Molly "Sorry about earlier by the way! X)"

Mono: it's fine! get home safe!

Molly "I will! You have a good night!" *and with that, she heads on out! Tho she's... def going to have to explain the book to Sophia... *

-Does Sophia come to her senses any time soon-

=She still seems in a bit of a blur when you get her home.=

Molly *sets her down so that she can unlock the heckin door * "...Sophie, you okay?"

Sophia:oh!! Oh, yes, I'm just-- This has been quite a day!!

Molly "Yeah, it has! I'm... I probably shouldn't have tossed a sex book at you in front of our friends! I'm sorry about that |D"

Molly "...It's a pretty good book though -v-" [I skimmed]

Sophia: I'm sure it is, but I would certainly rather that you not pull out books like that as gifts in front of our friends!"" hands over face omg

Molly *gently pulling Sophia in so they can have this convo on the couch * "Yeah, a lot of this was sorta heat of the moment! I-- I legit got that book from a street vendor halfway to the tower."

Molly *grinning * "The next time I get you a sex book, it'll be in the privacy of our own home! UVU"

Sophia: lets herself get led And, I enjoy that about you so very much, but I'm just not great at-- AAAA, MOLLY!!! she fluffs RIGHT BACK UP, sparkity spark

Molly "Yeah, see! Mono had a point earlier! I think that you're a really sweet woman, but... I literally can't touch you"

Molly *she makes a bit of a hand wavy gesture * "That makes a lot of things... kinda hard"

Sophia: Yes, I know.' ...I'm sorry, it makes everything really difficult.'

Molly *she's still wearing the gloves so she's gonna pet Sophie * "I know I tend to jump in with surprising you and such but, I do want to help you get over bein awkward!"

Molly "I'm really glad that you're willing to go to market and some places with me now, by the way :>"

Sophia: I-I mean.... I'm willing to give it a try... I can't be nervous about leaving the house forever!"

Molly "Yeah! I'm not going to expect you to be a social queen, but you're making progress!"

Molly "And y'know, I do get to pick you up every day now uvu"

Molly "Iiiii wanna hear more about what you studied from day to day, how about that?"

Sophia: ears flick up I- I can certainly tell you about that!

Molly *smiles * "Yeah!" *she laughs to herself... * "I kinda do go at my own pace, but I think I can slow down for you, figuratively uvu"

Molly "I do have a question for you though... how do you feel about me, Sophia? <o<"

Sophia:!!! Oh!! oAo she presses her hands against her face, trying not to floof out too much I- you're really cool and nice and really pretty, Molly. I don't know if I've figured out how I entirely feel about you, but I know I like you a whole lot, and I'm glad you moved in with me.

Molly *grinning wide * "I like you a lot too Sophie. Did you know that you're cute as heck?"

Sophi: AAAAAAAAAA

Molly *she snickers and just... kisses Sophia on the cheek , preparing for shock tbh *

Sophia: she flushes bright red, and there is a small zap, but it's not too bad, Molly!!

Molly "Hey, y'know, I can totally ask you out, once you feel ready that is! Or is it... asking in, since we're at home?"

Molly *she's bein silly tho *

Sophia: she covers her face fully, but giggles into her hands I guess it would be asking in!

Molly "...Wanna sleep on the couch with me tonight?"

Molly "You gotta promise not to shock me though"

Sophia: You know I can't promise that, Molly!!! *lowers her hands enough to squint at Molly, you know this!!*But, ok, yes!!

Molly *laughs and pulls Sophie into a hug! * "Alright! B>"

Sophia: *leans into the hug a tiny bit*but! I need to get ready for bed first!

Molly "oh! I guess you should go do that then <o<" *she lets go! *

Sophia: hops up and scoots off to her room!

Molly *she's gonna get out of her work clothes while Sophia does that, taking the time to get into her casual clothes, I guess! *

Sophia: shuffles out a few minutes later, she is full on sheep right now as she climbs up onto the couch next to Molly

Molly *omg * "I really don't wanna squish you, so sadly, like this I must stay unu"

Sophia: I understand. she nods her head and rests her chin on Molly's thigh

Molly *pets! * "Unless you wanna sleep between my front legs, that is always an option! It will be very warm though"

Sophia: Between your-- OH!! Oh, no, I'm sorry, I shouldn't-- SHE SITS BOLT UPRIGHT

Molly "Is something wrong?!" [that was sudden!]

Sophia: No!! No, nothing is wrong!" very red

Molly *repeating what she said in her head... * "...Oh, bad phrasing, my forelegs, like, arms, but for horses. |D!"

Sophia: OK!!' Ok. That- that makes more sense!!

Mottie06/07/2019

Molly *laughing tho * "I didn't imagine you were the type to think like that , Sohpie -v-"

Sophia: There's a lot about me you don't know, Molly!!

Molly "Well, I'm intrigued, maybe it's time for more Sophie fun facts :>"

Sophia: Nooooo, it's time for more Sophia sleeps so she doesn't have to nap in the library tomorrow. uAu

Molly "ha! You're right. Molly needs her rest too" *and she flops down to do just that! Totes spooning Sophie *

Sophia: she can accept this. She snuggles back against Molly. She's. She's fluffy to be against.
