MAP Growth assessment is for measuring achievement and growth in K–12 math, reading, language usage, and science. It provides the teachers with accurate, actionable evidence to help inform instructional strategies regardless of how far students are above or below grade level. It also connects to the largest set of supplemental instructional providers, giving educators flexibility in curriculum choices.

MAP Reading Fluency is an early reading assessment that enables teachers to efficiently measure oral reading fluency, literal comprehension, and foundational skills.

https://www.nwea.org/