

Adult Classes

ALFies –Art, Literature, Faith –meets in Conference room, 9:30-10:45

Shared presentations on a variety of topics ranging from life lessons from those who have contributed to the arts, lessons designed to promote spiritual growth, and discussions celebrating who we are and where we are on our journey through life.

Contact: Claudia Ryan 505-850-9935,

Claudiacryan@gmail.com

Anne Down/ing 505-409-9314,

drdaverome@gmail.com

Partners in Harmony Meets at 9:45 a.m. Sundays

Bible study

Currently studying world religions

Contact Joyce Roberson

Celebration: Meets in Library upstairs 9:45-10:30 or 10:45

Bible Study– group discussion, inductive reasoning Current topic: Books of the Apocrypha

Contact: Bruce Underwood,

bruce.underwood77@gmail.com

Class of Promise –Meets in 1st floor room at end of hall beyond the Life Center OR on Zoom (send email to get the Zoom link

Bible Study–Typically following the lectionary, but special studies for lent and advent.

Current Topics: No homework, just show up! We'll read the passage at the meeting.

Contact: Jim Hering Jr.

heringfamily@hotmail.com

What it means to be a Central United Methodist

Sessions happen the 5th Sunday of each quarter from 9:45-10: 45.

Come learn about Methodism, Central's ministries and opportunities to connect.

Scheduled for May 31, Aug 30 and Oct 25 in the Chapel.

Contact Janice Honeycutt Hering

<janice.honeycutt@yahoo.com>

Younger adult (20 and 30 something's) Bible study or Sunday school

Come join us as we discuss and support one another in our journeys of faith

945 in Room 302

Contact Matthew Honeycutt or Glenn Small for details

Children and Youth Classes Nursery/child care/Sunday School

9:45-10:00-12:15

Toddlers to 5th grade

Contact: Martha Bedeaux,

bedeauxm@gmail.com

Children's Sunday School 9:45-10:30

Upstairs In Youth Lounge

Ages 3-5th grade

Children's Church –meets during the sermon time on Sundays in Children's Area

- Children may travel to the Children's area at start of sermon and then return to parents for the rest of service
- Lessons from Cokesbury All Ages Curriculum– Big Faith

Youth Sunday School –meets in Youth Lounge at top of east stairs. 9:45-10:45 Grades 6-12

Current focus is MVPs from the Old Testament

Contact: Martha Bedeaux,

bedeaux@gmail.com

Where to Serve Stephen Ministry

Have a heart to walk with others through grief? Be a minister.

Dealing with loss? Job, loved one, relationship? Dealing with grief? A Stephen Minister provides a free confidential one on one relationship to walk with you through your issue.

Contact George Faulhaber

Hospitality: Serve as an usher or greeter. Brief training is available so you are confident and informed. Contact Donna Faulhaber or Leslie Oakes

Interested in helping serve communion at the 11 AM service? Brief Training is available and you can pick the Sundays that work for you. Contact George Meineke

United Women of Faith
Explanation: a sisterhood acting in faith to tackle the hard work of the world without hesitation. Find the link on the church website: centraltolife.org
Contact: Peggy Arensdorf

Wesley Group College students and college aged adults! There are opportunities on Tuesday evenings at 7, doors open at 6 for study and a meal with your peers. If you don't fit in this age group, you can still provide dinner for the participants! Contact Michele Walton

ID Clinic/ Helping Hands
Wednesdays from 10 am-noon, and one Thursday each month at the Gateway East shelter (see below). Join our ecumenical crew to help clients get an ID and/or Birth Certificate to gain access to work and housing. Computer skills are helpful but not required, Contact Martha Bedeaux or Abbey Reed

The Helping Hands Crew visits with those who drop in and provides resources and encouragement. Donations of Snacks are welcome! Contact George Faulhaber

Satellite ID Clinic –This crew goes once a month on the 3rd Thursday from 10-noon to assist clients at the city's Gateway center on Gibson. This project is in its pilot year—a good time to get onboard. Contact Mark Stuve or Abbey Reed.

Reducing Food Insecurity on Campus
Various opportunities are available to help provide food and necessities for students and faculty at UNM and CNM. We are working on food rescue and ways to fill the gaps with necessities that SNAP doesn't pay for. This, too, is in collaboration with several congregations. Contact : Abbey Reed

Find us at Centraltolife.org

O.N.E—Our Neighbors' Experiences
Imagines growing compassion and healing through hearing and learning about people's experiences. Once a month (or so) on Thursday evening you can join a zoom call to hear the inspiring story of one of our neighbors. Watch the newsletter for sign-up or catch the recorded interviews linked on our website: centraltolife.org

Choir—Sings at the 11 a.m. service. Wednesday evenings 7-8:30
Men's and Women's ensembles rehearse Wednesdays at 6:30-7. Karen Marrolli

MassApPeal Bell Choir: Thursdays 6:30 p.m. Nights—Nancy Roberts Small

Media/TV Crew—Glenn Small