

A LONG TALK

ABOUT THE UNCOMFORTABLE TRUTH

Greetings,

I hope this finds you and yours in good health. My name is Kyle Williams, and I am the founder of Decide2Inspire, LLC. We are an educational creation company focused on stimulating anti-racism activism. You are receiving this letter because someone chose you as a potential participant in a group for our new interactive anti-racism experience called, A Long Talk About The Uncomfortable Truth.

The purpose of this work is to end racism and dismantle systemic oppression in America by energizing, activating, and empowering allies in the pursuit of our shared purpose. We will do this by engaging in an ongoing conversation focused on truth, understanding, and problem solving, leading to individual and cooperative activism. In essence, the experience is an honest conversation about how we can all do more than just being personally “not racist.”

We have conducted this experience with 500+ people over the last 80 days and have received a tremendous amount of positive feedback. We are hosting our next conversation on Tuesday, October 20th, and if you are reading this, someone thought enough of you to invite you to join us! We are looking for a group of no more than 100 participants, to join us on Zoom for three consecutive days of 90 minute interactive sessions. The schedule for the calls is as follows:

- October 20 (Tuesday) - October 22 (Thursday) @ 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm EST

There is a requirement of completing selected prework assignments to qualify for a “seat at the table”. The prework can be found here. If you are interested in participating please be sure to complete the pre-registration form on the first slide in the prework and then secure your spot by getting started from there. Also, feel free to forward this to anyone who you feel might be interested. Seats will be filled on a first come, first served basis. There is no charge to participate, however, donations will be accepted and appreciated.
