THE WOODS

How It Works

How Do I Shop at a Licensed Cannabis Store?

Customers can browse the online menu or visit the store in person. They may compare available products, review legal product information, ask staff questions, complete age verification, and purchase products using an accepted payment method.

What Should I Bring to Purchase Cannabis?

Customers must bring valid government-issued photo identification showing that they are at least 19 years old. Those collecting an online order should also have any confirmation details provided during checkout.

How Is Age Verified?

Staff review government-issued identification before completing a cannabis sale. This process helps the store comply with Ontario law and prevent sales to underage customers.

What Should I Expect During My Visit?

Customers can expect a professional retail environment with clearly organized product categories and knowledgeable staff. Team members can provide factual information about product formats, cannabinoid content, package sizes, and current availability.

Pricing and Payment

How Much Do Cannabis Products Cost?

Cannabis pricing varies according to product type, brand, potency, package size, and format. Customers can usually find both value-focused and premium options through the online menu.

What Factors Affect Pricing?

Pricing can be influenced by whether the product is flower, a pre-roll, edible, concentrate, beverage, CBD item, or vape. Brand positioning, THC or CBD content, package size, manufacturing process, and product format may also affect cost.

THE WOODS

Are Promotions Available?

Limited-time promotions may be available on selected products. Customers should check the Online Store or contact the location for current information before making a purchase.

Which Payment Methods Are Accepted?

Accepted payment methods may include cash, debit, or credit card, depending on current store policies. Customers can contact the store directly to confirm whether a specific payment option is available.

Cost Factors

The cost of cannabis products depends on several factors. Product category plays a major role because flower, pre-rolls, concentrates, edibles, beverages, CBD products, and vapes are produced and packaged differently. Premium and value brands may also have different price points, while THC and CBD content can influence pricing. Larger package sizes generally cost more overall, although the price per unit may vary. Product format also affects the final cost, and temporary promotions may reduce the price of selected items.

Legal, Safety and Compliance

Do I Need Government-Issued ID?

Yes, valid government-issued photo identification is required before purchasing cannabis. Staff must verify that every customer is at least 19 years old.

What Is the Legal Cannabis Age in Ontario?

The legal age to purchase, possess, and consume recreational cannabis in Ontario is 19. Licensed retailers must verify age before completing a transaction.
