

COMMISSION TERMS AND INFORMATIONS:

Please send me 50% non-refundable payment of the price. This is the necessary condition before starting your commission. I'll receive the rest before sending the final product.

Deadline: Usually from 2 to 3 weeks. If you want less than 2 weeks, I charge for a 30% fee because I have to spend all working time for your commission.

Process:

The description of characters should be detailed information (appearance, costume, gender, age, role/job, story, personalities,...). Sending images/references of artworks or designs you think are similar, inspired to your character is helpful.

Then, I will give the idea sketches after reading your description. You can request any change.

Next, I will proceed to do the line art. Accepting request minor changes in this step.

Thirdly, I will give you the base colored rendering. Accepting request minor changes in this step.

Finally, you'll receive a low resolution-watermark finish painting. The original resolution image will be sent after the rest payment is completed.

The artworks' copyright will belong to me, not the customer and will be shown on my social media platforms, portfolio. You (commissioner) are allowed for personal and limited commercial use.

For full commercial use, I charge a 30% fee. With commercial rights, you are allowed to use it in books, covers, as props, change it, and promote the brand.

(Credit is still required for usage of the artwork, even if altered or edited)