

How much will DASH cost in 2021?

Dash has steadily (but slowly) grown since its launch in 2014. In fact, it was worth below $10 until the closing quarter of 2016, and it was only in 2017 that it started growing — even reaching its all-time high of $1,540 in December the same year.

However, the future is not looking very bright this year, so what's next? Let's find out below.

Importance of Dash Coin

What is Dash?

Dash is a coin that was created solely to correct the numerous deficiencies that characterized BTC. The coin was forked from LTC, which was originally forked from BTC.

Prominent Features of Dash

- Transaction Speed: Transactions are quicker to complete on the Dash system thanks to the availability of InstantSend, which allows movements to be reflected in seconds.
- Funding System: The users are allowed to create their own Dash projects because of a decentralized users' funding system.
- Anonymity: Dash has a PrivateSend feature, which covers up all transactional details. No public addresses or amount of coins transacted are known to third parties.

Understanding the Change in Price of Dash Over the Years

Factors Affecting Dash Price

- Demand and Supply: When Dash experienced its famous growth, it became more popular among crypto users which positively influenced its price. However, the demand for the coin has fallen greatly and supply remained, which forced its price to fall.
- The Dash Platform: This also influences the price. Some users are okay with the system's special features but most are uncomfortable with the presence of Masternodes.
- Acceptance of Cryptocurrency: The world is starting to accept cryptocurrencies more which is evident in the unbelievable rise of popular coins like BTC and ETH. This is sure to affect Dash too.

Dash (DASH) Price Predictions

Dash Price Predictions for 2021

Most experts predict that Dash will do better than it currently is before the end of 2021. This is attributed to the increasing acceptance of crypto across the world. It is expected to be worth above $900 by the end of the year.

Dash Overall Value Predictions for the Future

Dash is billed to have favorable trends in the coming years. This is due to the increased government emphasis on unraveling crypto transactions. It is only a matter of time before crypto users seek more privacy, which is Dash's strongest feature. Smartereum expects Dash to be worth over $5,000 by 2025 and Coinpedia predicts $450.

These encouraging forecasts make Dash a desirable investment.
