Whilst also giving it back to the sender and making them lose in all areas of life extremely forever.

Machiavellians are known to be manipulators and the the smartest of the personalities in the Dark Triad, they are the puppet masters of society.. pure Machiavellians even when they don't possess some of the powers psychopaths have, can be far more dangerous than any psychopath, as their only interest is to be victorious at the end, and for that they use their brain. Often so do these individuals later in life end up In powerful situations where they dominate.. a good example of a Machiavellian is ofc johan liebert, saddam Hussein, hitler, light yagami, lelouch from code geass, Blackbeard from one piece and further more villainous characters.. this ability can not only be used for power seeking tho but its for sure one of it.

Black Hole Rising

This rising is placed in 12 degrees Leo with Pluto conjuncting it in a 0 degree orb and asteroids like Lilith, Andrejka, Walpurga, vampilov and tyrannosaurus on it.. this is called the black hole rising because it's the most vampiric rising there is, these natives look supreme and have a beauty that is down right otherworldly, they possess the ability to vampirize others with ease.

This ascendant will turn you into a vampire naturally but I've included various vampiric empowerments and instincts to vampirize people, animals, nature, energy structures, planets, asteroids and objects

The Leo ascendant is proud and boisterous they attract others with their charisma and powerful ability to lead with ease, Leo ascendant is the most predatory ascendant there is and this particular one gives a vampiric aesthetic and more vampiric abilities of the most powerful kind.
