

Bottomless Salted Pork Barrel

(unknown)

This large barrel was enchanted to keep on providing a ship's crew with protein rations. It provides endless amounts of seriously good salted pork. It is regarded as so valuable, it has been the cause of at least one war. Admiral Septimus Croak lost his commission because of it.

This barrel will reduce the monthly cost of a ship's rations by 25%. It negates a bad cook's penalty to crew loyalty.
