

Name: _____

DBQ Document Analysis, HIPPS

Date: _____

Ms. Buffalino

After you have read through the documents, choose one document to analyze.
Fill out the document analysis questions below. Please write in complete sentences.

DOCUMENT # _____

Historical Occasion	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Causation: What came first or triggered this?2. When did this take place? Include: periodization and description of that time period.3. What do you know about this topic (OSI)?4. Effect: What impact did this have? What occurred next?
Intended Audience	<ol style="list-style-type: none">5. For whom was the document created? Explain.6. Why is the audience paying attention to this document? Explain.7. What does the author think about his/her audience? Who would agree/disagree with document information? Explain.
Purpose	<ol style="list-style-type: none">8. What is the main idea of the document? Explain.

	9. For what reason was this document created? What does the speaker hope to accomplish? Explain. 10. Why was this produced at the time it was? 11. What was the author's goal, reason and purpose?
Point of View	12. Who is the speaker of the document? Describe the speaker; do not simply state their name. What does the document say about the speaker? Explain. 13. Is the author an eyewitness? Is the author a primary or secondary narrative source? 14. What is the author's background? Does this background have any potential biases? Make inferences! Explain. 15. What is not included in the document that you need? How does this demonstrate the document's biases? Explain. 16. How credible/reliable is the source? Does the author have necessary qualifications to comment on this? Make inferences! Explain.

Significance

17. Why is this document important? What does it say about the time period in which it was created? Explain.
18. What did this document (if anything) lead to? What was the response to this document (if known)? Explain.
19. Why is this significant in world history? If known, did the document accomplish its purpose? Explain.

CONTINUED on next page

OPTIONAL - after you have read all the documents

Helpful tool to: connecting the documents to your outside information

How does the content of these documents relate to what I know about the subject?

What OSI can I contribute to the essay? You can bullet in the chart.

POLITICAL ECONOMIC RELIGIOUS SOCIAL INTELLECTUAL ACHIEVEMENTS
GEOGRAPHY
TECHNOLOGY (Time Frame)	