IMPORTANT Copyright:

All rights reserved; My art may not be reproduced, copied, or edited or sold in any way without my knowledge and consent. Only commissioners and owners of said character have permission to upload any artwork they may have gotten from me. Proper credit must be given on whichever platform they post on by crediting one of my accounts.

By agreeing to commission me you agree to my TOS which can be read down below

- ☐ You must be 18+ to commission me, this is for my own safety and yours
- ☐ Full payment will be sent upfront via PayPal or Cash App (Split payments upon previously agreed upon)
- ☐ Turnaround time can be between 2-3 weeks at most a month, but communication will be provided on my end if things happen that might slow up my art progress (some pieces have been known to take me less than a few days it all just varies, but I can always give you a good time estimate)

If you want a rushed/fast piece please let me know during the initial conversation, that way we can figure out the extra rush fee

- ☐ Clear references are preferred without shading/highlighting

I can work off of description, but this usually requires more edits on my end, and might end up as a different overall price

I retain the rights to my work and can use it for advertisements for future commissions and to post it publicly/use for examples

Posts will be made via Twitter, Furaffinity, Facebook, and etc

If you would like to keep your commission private or anonymous please let me know beforehand so we can work that out!

☑My artwork is not to be uploaded to any NFT or AI group, I do not consent to my work being used in this way.☑

I do not start working on art/YCHs until I receive full payment

*I am happy to make minor changes in the finishing stages, and fine to make changes during the sketch and line work phase
If you request multiple changes once the art is completed, and sent to you (if you already approved beforehand) there will be a fee added*

WIPs and Changes

I can send as many WIPs as requested at any stage of the process

Edits can be requested as many times during the sketch phase, and twice during the linework, and twice during the coloring/rendering stage

Any excessive editing will have a 5 usd on up fee that will be applied and must be paid before finishing the work (I strive to make sure your piece is what you want!)

Refunds

I can refund 70% of the initial cost if the sketch stage is not what you initially wanted or I can't make correct changes to your OC to make the art how you want

Once linework is started you will receive 50% original cost, since we agreed before starting the linework on the initial sketch

☑If you do a refund or chargeback through PayPal after receiving the piece, if we haven't already discussed a refund ahead of time, you will be blacklisted and blocked

I will also make sure other artists are aware of your behavior so they can avoid possible issues as well

If you really aren't happy with my work, or insist on me emulating someone else's style that is not my own, please do not bother with asking about a commission in the first place

Overall

Please be assured that it is easy to get a hold of me on whichever platform you commission me on, I try to respond to all messages in a timely manner. If real life events prevent me from working temporarily on your commission work, I will be sure to communicate that with you so you aren't left wondering.

Communication is key, and I am here for you. You are paying for a service from me, and I want to try my best to make sure my customers are satisfied, feel acknowledged, and thrilled with the work they receive from me!

Thank you for taking the time to read this and for wanting to commission me in the first place. I am truly grateful for all the continued support I get through my artwork, and I strive to always improve to give you the best product possible!
