INT. WHITE ROOM - DAY

Three people in different scenes sit down and get fitted with a microphone

Person A

What do I love most in the world?

CUT TO:

Person B

Psshhhh, that's easy

CUT TO:

Person C

I thought you were going to ask something difficult

CUT TO:

A triple frame shows the three of them as they answer one-by-one.

Person A

(excitedly)

Loud!

Person B

(excitedly)

Shekpe!

Person C

(soberly, with a smile)

Jesus

Person A and Person B look toward the frame where Person C sits with furrowed brows. Person A's frame expands to fill the screen. He snaps back to face us and smirks

Person A

Why do I love loud? Ahn, you be learner? Loud helps me-

CUT TO:

Person B

-forget all the rubbish that's ongoing. Especially in times like this. Omo, shekpe will make you fly-

CUT TO:

Person C

-highhh. Far higher than all the problems. But I realised a painful truth. What goes up will always come down. And the more I flew, the harder I crashed. Till I hit-

CUT TO:

Person A

-rock bottom? scoffs and shrugs That's normal now. I mean, it's a...
it's a part of-

CUT TO:

Person B

-life. Sure, I lost my wife/husband, and she/he took my children and didn't tell me where they were going. And, yeah, I lost my-

CUT TO:

Person A

-job and my house... but all of that's-

CUT TO:

Person C

-normal. At least I thought it was. Good riddance, right? So I just kept falling. I pushed everyone away-

CUT TO:

Person A

-until there was no one left... until there was no longer a reason to live

CUT TO:

A triple frame shows the three of them. Tears fill their eyes. Person C's frame expands to fill the screen. Person C smiles

Person C

I was ready to end it. I had planned how I was going to do it, too. Nothing fancy, I'd just walk in front of a trailer. I've heard they don't have the best brakes. I was sitting on the side of the street, trying to figure out which road would be best. That was when she came. I can't remember her name but she told me about Jesus. God in the flesh who came down and was beaten, spat on, ridiculed and He did it all... for me. She told me that this Jesus still loved me and no matter what, He still had a plan for my life and He wanted the best for me. And then she prayed with me... No, I haven't gotten back everything I lost but I just have this joy because I know I've gained much more. I threw the poison away, of course. I don't know what tomorrow holds, but I know that with Jesus, life is worth living, and I can't wait to see what tomorrow brings!

ON SCREEN:

Save a life today. Tell someone about Jesus

Draft

Person A: What do I love most in the world?

Person B: Psshhh, that's easy

Person C: I thought you were going to ask a difficult question

Person A: My loud!

Person B: My beer

Person C: My Jesus

Unease in Person A and Person B

Person A: Why do I love loud? It helps me

Person B: Forget. And it gives me

Person A: Wings. So I can fly high above all my

Person C: Problems. But I realized pretty quickly that what goes up must surely come down and I realized that when I came down, I crashed so hard that I hit

Person A: Rock bottom? I mean, yeah, that's normal. I lost my wife/husband, my

Person C: kids, my house, my

Person B: cars, yeah, but that's

Person C: normal. At least I thought it was, so I just kept

Person A: falling. I pushed everyone away. Until

Person B: there was no one left... Until there was no longer a reason to live

Person A, B and C become sober and tears fill their eyes. Then Person C smiles

Person C: at least, that's what I thought. But He was always there. He held me close and He showed me how futile all my efforts before Him had been. He carried me in His arms and He showed me that with Him, there was nothing life could throw at me that I couldn't conquer. With Him, life is worth living

Then we can add a message: "Tell someone about Jesus today. You may be saving a life"

Potential problems:

- The core gospel message is not represented
- It may be too easy a resolution at the end
- There was no evangelist in the video
