Labor Unions: Pros and Cons

Why are the wages for union members higher than non-union members as represented in the chart? Why might employers be opposed to their workers joining a union?

Given the two examples (Railroad strike, Postal strike, Frito-Lay strike), would you strike for better working conditions or wages? Would you join a labor union if one were offered at your job?

Do the benefits of labor unions outweigh the negatives? Are they harmful to business and the economy?

Are labor unions still needed in America? Explain with current examples.
