Montclair Brewery

<http://www.montclairbrewery.com>

Montclair Brewery is a husband and wife owned microbrewery and tasting room that was born from the desires of head brewer Leo Sawadogo to turn his passion of home brewing into an exciting and growing business and his marketing guru wife, Denise who manages the business operations.

The mission of Montclair Brewery is to build a stronger community within the Montclair and greater New Jersey and New York area by offering an exciting place where craft beer devotees and those new to craft beer are welcomed to explore and taste a refreshing and unique selection of brewed on-site craft beers.
