The Colchagua Vocal Institute welcomes classically trained singers and pianists from around the world, with a special emphasis on those eager to deepen their knowledge of Hispanic repertoire, vocology, vocal and mental health, and career preparation in today's music world. We proudly foster a diverse and inclusive environment, open to artists at every stage of their journey — whether you are an emerging performer, an experienced voice educator, or a professional musician looking to expand your artistic horizons.

There is no age limit, and we warmly welcome those new to the classical music world, as well as seasoned artists seeking to enrich their understanding of Spanish and Latin American music traditions. Ideal participants are curious, open-minded, and ready for an unforgettable experience that goes beyond music-making — one that embraces cultural exchange, artistic exploration, and deep community connection.

Set in a unique retreat-style environment, CVI offers participants the opportunity to step away from the demands of daily life, form lasting connections with fellow artists, and rediscover their passion for the performing arts in a nurturing and inspiring setting.

We would like to invite you to participate in a unique Masterclass Workshop with Olga Bezsmertna and Rafal Siwek, as part of the 3rd Edition of the Baltic Opera Festival. This is a unique opportunity to work under the guidance of renowned soloists from international opera stages.

During the Workshop with Olga Bezsmertna, participants will work on opera repertoire including works by Wolfgang

Amadeus Mozart, Giacomo Puccini and Giuseppe Verdi, as well as selected works from the Slavic music canon, including compositions by Leoš Janáček, Antonín Dvořák and Karol Szymanowski.

Rafał Siwek will lead a workshop devoted to vocal repertoire covering the period from Classicism to late Romanticism. Participants will have the opportunity to work on opera arias, solo scenes and art songs from this period.

The workshop will conclude with a final concert to be held on 16 July 2025 at St John's Church in Gdansk. It will be performed by Olga Bezsmertna, Rafał Siwek and selected participants of the workshop. The concert is one of the events of the Baltic Opera Festival and will be a kind of culmination of a week of intensive artistic work.

September 01, 2025 - July 31, 2026

Irish National Opera is now accepting applications from piano players for a position in the INO Studio as répétiteur. The position will suit pianists that have already achieved a high level of skill, for example those that have already achieved a performance degree or masters.

The INO Studio is the company's artist development programme. Each year we work with a small number of artists on a year-long intensive training programme which also sees studio members work extensively on INO productions.

As répétiteur in the INO Studio, you will expand your skills and competency at accompanying singers, develop your language skills and experience working in a cross-discipline environment. The INO Studio répétiteur will receive regular coaching from world class artists, alongside the chance to work as an assistant répétiteur on a number of INO's productions in the 2025/2026 season.

Compensation

Payment is provided

The studio répétiteur receives a retainer fee for their participation on the programme. You'll be expected to attend up to 80 days of training and/or production rehearsals over the course of the season which runs from September 2025 until July 2026. Specific dates within this window will be agreed upon appointment.

Brahms Choral Works

Participants in the Atelier Lyrique sessions will be engaged in the Pearl Fishers choir in November 2025 and during an aperitif-concert on July 2, 2026.

The Massy Opera returns with a two-part training cycle based on the repertoire of Bizet and Brahms. The first week will be followed by members participating in the Pearl Fishers choir on the stage of the Massy Opera, and the spring week will feature a public performance including a cappella choral works by Brahms during an aperitif concert in Massy.

The themes of the next season of the Atelier Lyrique de l'Opéra de Massy will be structured around two axes that we will explore during training weeks in the fall and spring: Bizet and the richness of his lyrical repertoire, and the sound universe of Brahms and his contemporaries through the composition of melodies.

The first week will be followed by members' participation in the Pearl Fishers choir on stage at the Massy Opera House, and the spring week will feature a public performance including Brahms's a cappella choral works during an aperitif concert in Massy. These two contrasting topics will allow participants to delve into very different notions of Romantic performance practice, and to focus on the relationship between aesthetics and their respective languages.

Program Information

The Dayton Opera Artists-in-Residence Program was established in 1987 to serve as a professional training program for young singers as a bridge to move from the university/conservatory education experience into the arena of a professional opera company. Since its inception, over one hundred young artists have participated in this program. Artists, selected by audition, work together to perform education and outreach programs in our community, helping to ensure the future of this magnificent art form in our area.

While in Dayton, the Artists in Residence will sing at various community, donor, and social events, perform recitals, and receive music and diction coaching. They will receive guidance to foster their artistic development and provide insight into both the art and business aspects of making a career in opera.

Compensation
