

SL: This is Only for You, Name.
Name, how does this sound?
Name, this may surprise you.
Name, a bankable idea only for you.

Hey Lisa,

I recently saw your Instagram post, "Let me take this moment to remind you that you are a MASTERPIECE."

I really liked it when you mentioned the secret is people are not worried about you but themselves.

I can see how your transparency drives a lot of traffic to your channel.

I did intensive research on some top players like Stephan Speaksin in your niche.

I noticed they all use one similar mechanism called RCS to get tons of attention to their products.

I went ahead and pasted an example below so you can see it yourself.

I have a few other ideas to help you drive massive traffic to your new online course.

If you want to know more, email me back so we can set up a short meeting.

This is a short copy that you can use on Instagram, and Facebook, your email list.
Judge for yourself. 👉
