

Values Statement

By enrolling your student(s) in Beacon Hill Homeschool Cooperative, you acknowledge the following statements as the official position of the community. We open our doors to all faiths, but by signing this document you agree that you and your children will abstain from promoting any notions, values, philosophies or personal beliefs that run contrary to this statement while attending cooperative.

We believe that all human beings are children of God and should be treated with dignity and respect, without compromising our values. We promote kindness and civility toward others.

We believe that gender has eternal purpose and is consistent with biology.

We believe that our bodies are gifts from God and should be honored as such through modesty in dress and appearance and moral cleanliness. We avoid drugs and other harmful substances.

We believe that marriage is ordained of God and should be between a man and a woman, according to His law. We believe that God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman within a marriage.

We believe that the family is the fundamental unit of society, and that the ideal environment in which a child should be raised is within the bonds of a strong family.

We believe that human life is sacred, from its conception to its natural end. We defend and value all human life.

We are deeply grateful for the freedoms we enjoy in the United States of America, and we honor those who have protected those freedoms. We believe the United States Constitution is divinely inspired and should be upheld and defended.
