[BACKGROUND]

Njal had worked as a ship mechanic with his family in the village Dalvik from 16 until he was 24. He and his family were in a group within the village that had continued to worship the Norse Gods.

In 2014, an unknown anomalous creature was spotted in his neighborhood. As word began to spread, multiple townsfolk including him and his family came together to hunt the creature down. Foundation would later arrive but before they could even intervene the group had already found and killed the creature.

The Mobile Task Force that was sent known as 'Village Idiots' attempted to detain the villagers and Njal involved which caused the people to retaliate and fight back against the operatives, injuring multiple of them. This led to the task force members opening fire on the group, killing almost everyone except Njal. After the incident, he would leave his village on a mission to try and bring down the ones who sent that group that killed his family. In 2016 he learned about 'The Foundation' from different groups he had connected to throughout his time traveling. He would then find his place within the Chaos Insurgency where he would learn to grow a brotherhood within the group. After years of training in Cell-10 to join the Heavy Unit Division, he would be sent to a newly formed company led by 'Commander All-Father' to fight the Foundation. Later on through his work he would be brought in Black Watch and be Gifted the title of 'Týr'. During his final moments against the sarkics he had detonated a bomb that closed off all sarkic portals, saving everyone within the forgotten realm, sacrificing himself in the process.

[LIKES & DISLIKES]

[HATE]

Sarkics: If the Foundation is corrupted, then the Sarkics are a cancer that must be cleansed.

Ambassador: Abomination! What you have done to me, your threats will not break me.

[DISLIKE]

Deprivation/Kaizen/Static: You always yap your mouth expecting no push back, it ironic your branch buries you, I hope it happens again from what I've heard you did in medical. Good that you're gone.

Twin: What the fuck is wrong with you.

Foundation: A good idea to have to contain the darkness of the world, but not allow humanity to evolve from these anomalies for a brighter future just for them to be locked away forever against their will when they just want to help. That is not right.

Felwinter: Something is odd with you, I can't put my finger on it, you don't feel human at times, more like a machine.

Typhoon: Though I hate you for what you did to me, you still deserved a warrior's death at least.

GOC: Bureaucrats... All of them, though some are good souls, are nothing but animals that slaughter innocent anomalous due to fear and superstition

[NEUTRAL]

Wisp: An odd one, kind in a lot of ways. Weirdly, you're still friends with the one who called you that phrase though.

Nightshade: Though you made your mistakes, you brought CI back to its former glory, may you rest in the arms of chaos.

Sewer Rat: I wish I could help you more sister.
