Abstract

All articles should be accompanied by an abstract between 150-300 words in 12-point Adobe Garamond Pro, single space. The abstract should be clear, concise, and descriptive. This abstract should provide (a) a brief introduction to the problem, (b) objective of the paper, (c) the methodology, (d) a brief summary of results, (e) contribution of research, (f) conclusion, and (g) recommendation (if any).

Keywords

mention between 3-5 keywords that describe the manuscript.

A. Introduction

The introduction describes the background of the article discussed as a whole. The introduction should be written clearly and succinctly, comprising: (a) an adequate background and significance of your paper; (b) concise previous studies related to the issue written in your manuscript; (c) the main limitation of the previous studies and what you hope to achieve (to solve the limitation) in your manuscript; (d) the scientific merit or novelties of your paper; (e) the aim(s) of the study; (f) the structure of the article or research questions.

Please note that all writings should be in the paragraph format; this journal discourages the author(s) from writing point per point in the numbering format. The manuscript written uses Adobe Garamond Pro (12 pt), in single space. For the Articles section with a length of minimum 9,000 words (including footnotes) and with a minimum of 30 footnotes (80% from journal articles) and the Book Reviews section with a length of 1,500-2,000 words (including footnotes).

At the last paragraph of this part, please describe the method used on the paper. This method is written descriptively and should provide a statement regarding the methodology of the research. It includes the approaches used in the research, and how the author obtained the data for this research. This method as much as possible to give an idea to the reader through the methods used.

B. Main Heading of the Discussion (First)

This section is the most important section of your article. The analysis or results of the research should be clear and concise. The results should summarize (scientific) findings rather than providing data in great detail. Please highlight the differences between your results or findings and the previous publications by other researchers.

Heading in the discussion section should be consistently written with the structure of the article in the introduction. Headings in this discussion use Roman letters (I., II., III., etc.; you can add more than one part of the discussion, it depends on your structure of the discussion you want to write).

Guidelines for Article Revision

To ensure the quality of your revised submission and to facilitate the review and editorial process, please follow the guidelines below:

1. Revision Based on Reviewer Comments

- o Authors are required to revise their manuscript in accordance with the comments and suggestions provided by the reviewers.
- o Address all points raised by the reviewers in a clear and comprehensive manner. If you disagree with any comment, please provide a reasonable explanation in the response to the reviewers.

2. Track Changes Activation

- o Authors must enable the Track Changes feature in their word processor during the revision process.
- o This will allow the editor and reviewers to easily identify the changes made to the manuscript.

3. Similarity Check Requirement

- o After revising the manuscript, authors are required to independently check the similarity of the revised paper using plagiarism detection software (e.g., Turnitin, iThenticate).
- o The similarity score must not exceed 20%, excluding references and quotes.

4. Proofreading Requirement

- o The revised manuscript must be proofread to ensure proper grammar, clarity, and adherence to academic writing standards.
- o Authors are required to submit proofreading evidence, as specified by the journal, along with the revised manuscript.

5. Compliance with Journal Indicators and Requirements

- o Authors must ensure that their revised manuscript meets all indicators and requirements as outlined by the journal, including formatting, citation style, and adherence to the journal's focus and scope.

- o Revisions that do not fulfill these requirements may be returned to the authors for further improvement or even rejection.

Additional Notes:

- Submit the revised manuscript along with a revision report or response to reviewers document, detailing how each comment has been addressed.
- Ensure that the revised manuscript is formatted according to the journal's latest template.

Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in delays in the editorial process or even article rejection. If you have any questions or require clarification, please contact the editorial team.
