Hello Everybody

I'm your Video Game Rap Battles Anime Edition Guest Host: Present Mic

Today we have a battle between 3 of our Top Students in Class 1-A

Izuku Midorya vs Katsuki Bakugo vs Shoto Todoroki

Fight!

Deku (0:22):

A boy without a quirk who really wanted it most

Now I'm selected by the best to be a beacon of hope

Between your rage and selfish vein the truth is startin' to show

That I'm the only one of us that knows what makes a hero yo

When smashin' the raps you be fightin' the best

I know you won't pass when you're tryin' this test

Earned all my might because I got this drive and you guys haven't gotten your licenses yet

Studied your styles I know you all

I've built myself better off overall

Cause based on the battles I've bested while you all were all restin' your arcs need an overhaul

Kacchan if it's war I'll leave you sore cause you're the loser that explodes when is wronged, I guess you really are a boomer

This rescuer know you're sweating cause you stink when you flow

I guess you really can't spell Bakugo without the BO

And yo, Shoto, it's so low you don't know that you own your own flow and if you can't accept it then you're really left with no hope, cause when I risk my life to save a kid at least it isn't almost getting beat by them in gym

Bakugo (1:08):

I usually start with a hook but I'mma light this verse like gas it won't be hard to hurt the brat who's first day tests were worst in class and So you borrowed someone's power thinking you're now tough

But when you spit you're not a legend you're a little Deku Scrub

DEKU, I will bet you are gonna run and fall Cause when it comes to disses I got more than one for all
I'm humanity evolved, because my strength's overpowerin'
When the fear flows through your body you will just be full cowering (OW)

Got me angry now,
Cause you can't go all out,
You're breaking at 20%
and so my win won't even count

Suggestin' you're the best at saving those from any foe
Then you should take a look at Nighteye cause that theory's full of holes Oh

Check the nurse nobody's got no pain relief for icy hot
How you an absolute zero while you're daddy's at the top
I guess his test tube baby flopped, you made your father proud
Turning out an edgy fire bender, Zuko Watered Down

Tried to be so bright and deep but sob story's boring
I'd spill the tea to burn ya but your mommy did it for me
But if you want to go to war, you should be locked in the ward with her for good because you're crazy standing here before me

Shoto (2:04)

Shoto here, I see you're both open to attack
When I step up on the scene, you'll be frozen on the track Deku, whoever let you believe [you're the] chosen one is wack.
and Bakugo, when I explode, you'll need an ice pack

I start to flow, and leave anybody broken coming back like Deku with every limb when he's focused on Uraraka's ass You're a bigger simp than Mineta and he owns the balls to clash with Bakugo cause you don't want to ruin the bromance that you have?
I'll pass

I'm the coldest yo even when I smoke this rap from the flame that I gave when I spoke of your past Got a scar on my face, I can cope with that as the sickest, you'll be hiding yours like Overhaul's Corona mask

Kacchan, calm it down, man, don't be so mad

Just cause I'm your mom's favorite character and I've blown up fast

I'll bet you hope to talk some smack about my loathsome dad well Deku, how long has yours endeavored to get to the grocery store? Oh, my bad

All Might (2:49):

I'm so proud of you, you went to the edge and pushed through your limits

But for you to truly win, you must limit that independence

Cus if you don't work together the finish will be diminished

You are stronger as a unit so listen to what I'm spitting

Bakugo, king explosions your powerful yea we know it

But you left your weakness open, just knowing you can't control it

It's your mental instability holding you back so own it

Caring doesn't make you weak, what's weak is being alone and

Todoroki endeavor was truly terrible yes

But we need you at your best against truly terrible threats

Let it go, be the hero your father could never be

I know it's hard don't be a martyr and live in your memories

Young deku, were a duo of sorts so you of course

Have my vested interest you are my ward But I need more than the next assistant

They can't see you cry tears

Tuck your lip straighten up and let me know that I'm here
