

CDS Press Information Architecture

Class Activity: Discovery Call Prep

This activity is to be completed as follows:

- week 2
- brainstorm in pairs or small groups
- submit individually on BB by the end of class

The objective of this exercise is to get ready for our “Discovery Call” meeting next week with our client, Dr. Masood Zangeneh, Founding Chair of CDS Press.

Start by visiting the following websites to explore the project, and our client:

- visit the project page and learn more about the project
- visit the CDS website and explore the navigation

Analyze the website’s current information architecture, brainstorm with a colleague in class and list the problems that are obvious to you as well as any questions for the client.

Submission

Start a new Word document individually, copy and paste the table below, then complete the work. Save it as PDF and submit the PDF on BB.
