

Dwayne Clum Memorial Scholarship

Alfred “Dwayne” Clum was a 1950 graduate of Conway Springs High School. Like many of his generation, he grew up extremely poor during the Great Depression of the 1930s, but through education and hard work, was Salutatorian of his class, and became a Air Force Rescue Helicopter Pilot, retiring at the rank of Major. His family wishes to honor his life and legacy by assisting others.

Each recipient is eligible for an award of $1,000.00 as follows: $500.00 for the fall semester and $500.00 for the spring semester (upon showing a copy of a transcript of fall semester’s grades and a GPA equal to a 2.0/4.0 or “C”). Recipient must provide proof of admittance to an accredited institution of higher education, i.e., a college, university, trade school or technical school, for each semester. The institution is paid the award directly.

Consideration will be given those in financial need based upon family income, and other scholarships or grants already awarded.
