I don't like that shade.
It doesn't look like anything on my
Lips, I feel digested by the black and white tube, shade range: Sephora.
I know it is too expensive. It is too much for just some oil.
A fly to honey, she spots me from behind Black Honey and hands me the tube
Buy it she says, it is so addicting, that Addict Lip Glow.
I use it all the time, it's made with cherry oil and created
To make your lips shine. All the celebrities are raving about it!
I think she is just trying to make a commission.
I hesitantly put the tub in my basket promising myself I will just put it back.
I don't like that shade, but I buy it anyway.
