

HA2 Jeannette A. Fisk (Leuthold)

Location - West-N: R25, C7

Trio of Oshkosh Waves Finish Basic Course

Finish Indoctrination at New York and Will Now Go to Great Lakes.

Three Oshkosh young women have completed their basic training and indoctrination course at the naval training school at the Bronx, New York, and have received orders to report for further instruction at the naval hospital corps school at the naval training center at Great Lakes, Ill. The three, all seaman second class, are Jeannette Ann Leuthold, Bernice Elnore Moser and Gene Mary Mason.

Miss Leuthold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leuthold, 208 Evans street, is a graduate of Oshkosh High school and previous to her enlistment she had been employed by Dr. N. Stuart Reingold at Beverly Hills, Calif., as a dental assistant. She has three brothers in the service, Myles, a private in the army, Vance, an aviation cadet, and Duane, an ensign in the navy. Another brother, Vernon, recently received his discharge from the air corps.