Weekend Trip: Monterey / Carmel / Santa Cruz

Saturday February 22, 2025
	Depart from SF for Monterey
AM	Monterey Bay Aquarium Visit	This could be late morning through lunch, letting students take their time to see everything I recommend 3-4 hours; they can do lunch in the aquarium, which has a decent cafeteria.
PM	Drive to Carmel taking 17 Mile Drive to view the coastline as you enter Carme, explore Carmel in the evening and spend the night there	Pros & Cons B. Carmel is a very cute downtown walkable area, plenty of shops, restaurants, galleries etc; it can be bougie and pricey but there are affordable options; 17-mile drive is iconic visually but it does cost money to drive through ($11/vehicle I believe)
Sunday, February 23, 20225
9:00/9:30 AM	Depart for Santa Cruz
10:30 AM	Arrive at the Mystery Spot	Only need 45 mins or so for this visit
11:00 AM	Head to Roaring Camp	20min drive from the Mystery Spot
11:30 AM	Have lunch at Roaring Camp &	There are various options here or

	Explore	you could pick up sandwiches on the way and do a picnic, it can feel like a classic old Americana tourist stop but it can be fun
1:30 PM	Take the Redwood Forest Steam Train	This is a roundtrip train to Bear Mountain and back to Roaring Camp. Approx 75-80 minutes on
3:30 PM	Depart Roaring Camp for Half Moon Bay	Take Coastal Highway 1 to see the coast line; you can even stop at some look outs along the way to see the cliff views take photos etc. Approx an 1 hour 15 mins to get to Halfmoon bay
5:00 PM	Stop for dinner in Half Moon Bay	Sam's Chowder House & Oyster Bar is tasty - you can even do takeout and eat picnic style? The Barn is very casual, burgers/sandwiches - but I think their menu is limited if you have students with allergies There are a bunch of spots that the group might prefer depending
7:00 PM	Depart for San Francisco	Approx 45-60 min drive
8:00 PM	Back at the Monroe Residence
