Market Regulations

1. Vendors are responsible for managing their accepted methods of payment or may use The Exchange 30A platform. Vendors are encouraged to incorporate electronic credit & debit card sales capabilities and assure proper cash is on hand for transactions.
2. The Exchange 30A does not have cash-change capabilities or an ATM present on site. Vendors are exclusively responsible for applicable sales tax for the State of Florida.
3. The Exchange 30A does not allow religious or political groups to vend. These groups are limited to the Free Speech strip located on the grass median on the opposite side of the main market lawn. Solicitation and petitioning are restricted to the grass and are expressly prohibited in all forms on the market lawn and parking lot. Any persons found in violation of this provision will be asked to leave the area or be trespassed for egregious violations.
4. Non-profit, government, student, and charitable groups are permitted to vend for free on the outside area in front of the market. This is a first come first serve opportunity and will not be expanded beyond the nine-booth limit. These groups are not permitted to sell products; however, they are allowed to seek donations, members, volunteers, and collaborative opportunities with other groups and members of the community. This opportunity primarily exists to allow these groups to educate, engage, and enable the community to promote civic engagement and community identity within the County.
5. The Exchange 30A market will not provide tables, tents, and chairs to vendors that require them.

Market Guidelines

1. The Exchange 30A reserves the right to cancel the market day for the projected bad weather, holiday conflicts, or any other reason determined to be in the best interest of the society and guests.
2. Upon acceptance to the The Exchange 30A Market, vendors agree to exclusively "hold harmless" the The Exchange 30A as well as its partners, affiliations, organizations, board members, general members, volunteers, staff, employees, and the 30A Axe for any and all liability, medical expenses incurred, loss of property, damage of property, merchandise or products, injuries, loss of revenue, and loss of life.
