

American Literature Vocabulary #1 list

1. insidious – sinister, dangerous
2. inviolate – unaltered, intact
3. extenuate – make less serious
4. despotism – government by a ruler with unlimited power
5. abdicate – to give up responsibility for
6. mercenary – a professional soldier hired to fight in a foreign army
7. perfidy – treachery, disloyalty, betrayal
8. redress – the correction of a wrong; compensation
9. tyranny – cruel and oppressive rule/government
10. celestial – heavenly
11. ardor – intense enthusiasm, passion
12. importune – to ask urgently or repeatedly; to annoy or trouble
13. transgress – to violate a command or law
14. impetuous – acting with sudden quickness; hasty

American Literature Vocabulary #1 list

1. insidious – sinister, dangerous
2. inviolate – unaltered, intact
3. extenuate – make less serious
4. despotism – government by a ruler with unlimited power
5. abdicate – to give up responsibility for
6. mercenary – a professional soldier hired to fight in a foreign army
7. perfidy – treachery, disloyalty, betrayal
8. redress – the correction of a wrong; compensation
9. tyranny – cruel and oppressive rule/government
10. celestial – heavenly
11. ardor – intense enthusiasm, passion
12. importune – to ask urgently or repeatedly; to annoy or trouble
13. transgress – to violate a command or law
14. impetuous – acting with sudden quickness; hasty

American Literature Vocabulary #1 list

1. insidious – sinister, dangerous
2. inviolate – unaltered, intact
3. extenuate – make less serious
4. despotism – government by a ruler with unlimited power
5. abdicate – to give up responsibility for
6. mercenary – a professional soldier hired to fight in a foreign army
7. perfidy – treachery, disloyalty, betrayal
8. redress – the correction of a wrong; compensation
9. tyranny – cruel and oppressive rule/government
10. celestial – heavenly
11. ardor – intense enthusiasm, passion
12. importune – to ask urgently or repeatedly; to annoy or trouble
13. transgress – to violate a command or law
14. impetuous – acting with sudden quickness; hasty