

Privacy Policy

Upon receiving a refund request for an in-app purchase, we reserve the right to provide Apple with data about the user's consumption of the purchase. This may include the duration since installation, total app usage time, an anonymous account identifier, whether the purchase was fully used, trial status, the total amount spent, and the amount refunded.

Preston Rice created and released the Remove It - Object Eraser. Your privacy is vital to us. This Privacy Policy explains what personal information the Remove It - Object Eraser collects, how it's utilized, and your rights as a user.

Information We Collect

The App may gather information as described below:

- Directly provided information: Includes name, email, profile picture, and other details you willingly provide.
- Usage and Log data: Refers to your interaction patterns, device data, and activity within the App.
- Device-specific data: Covers data such as IP address, device type, operating system, and device identifiers.
- Location information: Depending on permissions, we might collect real-time data about your location.
- Cookies and tracking: Used for enhancing your experience and understanding usage patterns.

Usage of Collected Information

The information aids us in:

- Improving the App's functionality and user interface.
- Addressing user concerns, feedback, and support requests.
- Dispatching essential notifications and promotional content.
- Generating anonymous, aggregate statistics about App usage.
- Identifying potential threats and improving security.

Data Sharing and Disclosure

We ensure limited sharing of your data, adhering to the following conditions:

- With your explicit consent.

- Legal and regulatory requirements or if mandated by a judicial process.
- In case of business transitions such as mergers or acquisitions, with guarantees of data privacy.

Third-party Services

We might collaborate with third-party services for analytics, advertising, and functionalities that can access your data with strict data protection clauses.

Security

Your security is our priority. We adopt best practices to safeguard your data, although no digital platform is invulnerable.

User Rights

You reserve the right to:

- Access, modify, or erase your personal data.
- Restrict or object to certain data processing activities.
- Withdraw any given consents.

Policy Updates

This Privacy Policy may be revised periodically. You are encouraged to revisit this page to remain informed about any changes.
