

SL: Promotional Growth Strategies

Hey Shane,

I was checking out your website, and it's great that you guys are pretty unique. As you said, only 3% of people are actually looking to gain weight in a good way, and you're the man.

As you know. Instagram, and social media in general. Are great places for you to amass the audience you want to gain massive success. And while I was looking. I thought of some ways that can help you grow even more and monetize even greater attention.

There are so many ways for you to do this. Such as offering 1 on 1 services, webinars, subscriptions and affiliates, etc.

And if you learn to simultaneously use these methods of promotional marketing. You will win.

If any of this sounds interesting to you, you can reply back to me via email, and we can discuss all this more.

Talk to you soon,

Michael
