

Follow Up:

Summarizing – What event do we learn is about to happen that will make the family an extended family, at least for the time being?

Evaluating – What words would you use to describe the scene around the dinner table at the beginning of the selection? Explain your word choice, and describe events that explain your reaction.

Analyzing – What examples of verbal and nonverbal communication can you identify in this selection? (Choose specific lines to support your answers)

Verbal –

Nonverbal –

Which of the characters displays the weakest communication skills? Give specific details that support your answer.