

Thank you for your interest in sponsoring The LIFT! This show is produced by two Minneapolis based queer, BIPOC artists. Our goal in creating this show is to cultivate a space for BIPOC artists of all disciplines to feel empowered and uplifted. We are building community and connections while celebrating the beautiful diversity that Minneapolis, and beyond, has to offer. We are heavily rooted in the queer community and continue to prioritize giving a platform to marginalized voices.

We are beginning planning for our 2025 season. Four shows, all with a different cast. In keeping aligned with our values, we are trying to offer a higher base pay rate, and be able to hire more artists. There are no volunteer roles in our production and we want to be able to continue to pay folks more as we grow this show.

If you are interested in being a part of that growth, here are ways we are looking for support:

- Financial support. If you can spare funds, any amount makes a huge difference. We will do social media shoutouts as well as at the show. If you have a business you want us to promote we will add it into our social media promotional materials as well. Financial donations are accepted through check, Venmo or Cashapp.
- Goods or services. We will have a silent auction at the venue of the show for audience members to bid on. This money will go directly to The LIFT funds, while also helping raise awareness for small businesses that participate. If you'd like to donate an item of any kind, we ask that we have all those donations at least 1 week prior to the show, as well as any materials you'd like for us to share about you!

If you have any questions or would like to move forward with being a sponsor please email marisolherling@gmail.com

Thank you for supporting BIPOC art and The LIFT!
Del the Funky Homosexual and Borinqueña Bonita