

What is a Memory?

By Emma Tagalos

A memory that makes me cry is when my grandma Lorretta died.

A memory that makes me laugh is when I read the Duckling Gets a Cookie by Mo Willems.

A memory that is as precious as gold is a medal that daddy won for a mud race.

A memory that is from long ago is Mr. Bear and I sleep with him every night.

A memory that makes me warm is my designed blanket.
