

Patterns of Power

Day 1	Notice things about the excerpt
Day 2	Compare and contrast two sentences
Day 3	Imitate with table group, partner, or individually
Day 4	Share & Celebrate

Week of:

Day 1	When a new person talks, you enter the line. It goes back and forth. Each dialogue gets quotation marks.
Day 2	They both have a question, 2 people talking, and have 3 rows. One of them talks about the brother, tag, and shouting. The other one talks about the mom, saying good morning, and has no shouting.
Day 3	My sister looked up at me. "Are you okay?" "Not really." I shrug. "Well, I hope you feel better."
Day 4	skipped

Week of:11/4

Focus Phrase: "I use ellipses to show removal of nonessential quoted information, making my point efficiently."

Day 1	Uses an ellipse in the first sentence, has multiple commas, and is first person.
Day 2	The second one does not have an eclipse and is longer but the first one does have an eclipse and is shorter. They are the same because they both give the same idea.
Day 3	I was walking through the park and stared at the playground equipment. There were slides, swings...I saw children everywhere, laughing and chatting. I knew then and there, that I was happy.
Day 4	skipped

Week of:11/11/24

Focus Phrase: "I use apostrophes to create more casual speech."

Day 1	Is a conversation, has dashes, spoken country like
Day 2	First has dashes, is shorter, about dating, the second one is longer, uses apostrophes, and is about a mom. They are similar because they both are spoken, country like.
Day 3	—Which concert are we goin’ to again?? Lorelie stared at the tickets.—The name is really tiny. —It’s a Blackpink concert, ‘member? Evie pointed at the name. —Oh yeah. Thx for the reminder.
Day 4

Week of:11/18/24

Focus Phrase: “I use quotation marks, last name(s), and a page number (when there is one) to cite others’ exact words.”

Day 1	After the quote, it shows the last name of the author and page number. It has more writing afterwards, and the quote is in quotation marks.
Day 2	First is longer, about adulthood and the quote is last. The second one is shorter, is about ‘The Little Mermaid’, and the quote is last.
Day 3
Day 4

Week of:12/2/24

Focus Phrase: I create a page of any sources I use

Day 1	Shows where quotes are found, shows date found, and who wrote it
