

PVT Herbert H. Clark

Location - West-A: R13, C29

Herbert H. Clark

Herbert H. Clark, 65, of Leonard Point Rd., West, who died Friday morning following a heart attack, had been a power plant contracting engineer.

He was married in Waukegan, Ill., on July 6, 1918, to Miss Margery Barbour, who died in 1949.

Mr. Clark was in officer training at Camp Grant during World War I. He was a member of First Congregational Church, past president of the Oshkosh Taxpayers Association, member of Centennial Lodge 205 of Masons, Tyrian Chapter 15, RAM, Oshkosh Commandery 11, KT, Valley of Madison Consistory and Zor Shrine, Madison.

Surviving are one son, Herbert H. Clark Jr., Racine; two daughters, Mrs. John Briggs, Rocky River, Ohio, and Mrs. Donald Shiras, Gary, Ind.; one brother, Elmer W. Clark, Oshkosh; one sister, Mrs. Walter Hewitt, Jensen Beach, Fla.; and seven grandchildren.