Email Two:

The Easy Way I Ripped Stress Away

Hey (Name of the reader)

Let me tell you a story, one that could benefit you.

A few years ago, when I was just starting this company...

I wasn't doing too hot.

Constant over worrying,

Every day felt like it was just too much.

Like everything was against me.

That was, until I discovered a simple way to:

- Double my productivity while spending less time on work,
- Be more happy and present,
- Dramatically increase the amount of energy I have daily!

And until now, I've usually kept this a secret,

But, since I'm passionate about providing the ABSOLUTE best for you all...

I've decided to distill my wisdom into a free E-book.

Take the first steps to defeat stress and conquer the day, every day.
