

drop your internship summer program for those having second thoughts about their internship...

and instead want to work on their own projects and/or company.

Details:

- We will give you $10,000 via an investment to drop your internship + help with housing in a hacker house in SF for a month.
- This program is mostly DIY. You'll have freedom to work on your own projects.
- Those accepted will be invited to a weekend in SF to meet founders of billion+ dollar companies
- Up to 9 people total
- Application (<4 minutes)

*Thank you to Z Fellows and anonymous donors for making this possible.

The $10,000 will be an investment done on an uncapped SAFE

This is the result of a late night experiment. Things may change BUT the goal is to help you drop your internship to work on cool things.
