

In which Ginkapo takes on the apprentice Madaghmire. Still another SK out there to join the cool kids club! ##kill him or have him ##kill you and he'll join and you can talk and stuff!

Glnkapo - The Sith Lord
Madaghmire- Optimus Crime

Woohoo - I targetted someone who would make a good partner, or a good dead townie. Take that however you want. I dont intend on talking that much here as it makes it harder to play townie.

Town during the day, and scum at night.

Fake Claim Ideas

- CPR Doctor, well it explains why people you visit die! But you would need to target scummy players for this to work.
- Redirector, well its not really a good claim, but you can weave a ridiculous web of lies with it.
- 3rd party survivor. It explains the alignment, but not the visiting. I also suspect in this game everyone is 3rd party of some sort.

Just dont claim ok!

Lol I wont be claiming. Did my absurdly dangerous cereal thing work?

I have no idea, and I dont really want to know...

I made a joke about cookie crisp. Actually I think pod of all people caught it but he didnt press.

Dont worry about finding the other SK, just concentrate on hunting scum during the day.

Well wait we have to have our obligatory 48 hours of wasting time with pod.

Dont force it! Let them lynch themselves, i've never seen you lead so assertively before. I dont have have a choice as I am.expected to lead so I must. You dont tend to do that.

Thats not true. I get fed up with nonsense pretty quick. Its why I voted toad first last game. I've lead from the front in a few games. Depends on my reads.

Here, see?

Hey do you think anything of JJ's "other contracts to fulfil" line?

I saw that too. Dont shoot him. Better we keep two kills than drop to one.

Pod has Vis' protective shield. He is trying to attract nightkills to waste them. Dont shoot him. Plus he is great cover.

I want Pod dead so badly. So, so badly. I don't even care that his nonsense is actually helping us.

I cant believe I'm going to get lynched because I havent been active enough for JJ and Oni. They have to be fucking joking.

If you get pushed again. Offer Onid a win. Claim Serial Killer, explain you have two mates and that if he votes he will die. Join us and win.

Bikes a doc tho.

Keep an eye on things for me. Planted the idea. Onid will go for it.

Hopefully. Also, pushing Oni probably wont work, as he has at least a single shot shield.

Btw...do we BOTH get to shoot?

No, we share a kill now.

Who was even talking about serial killers btw? I think you might have slipped there.

Nah its cool i am expendable. Even if I go down I am breaking the idea that town can win. Either you are with my team or not. Choose.

If its not JJ then who?

I dunno. There is a ton of fake claiming going on, because also we didn't kill anyone last night. Which is impressive because it feels like biggs made false claiming in this pretty difficult.

Do you have something to trade?

My vibroblade... you claim something sane. Survivor win condition and potentially a watcher who must witness a kill? Who did you target last night?

I am going audacious....

I was considering claiming thief with a specific target item. I could also work watcher and claim I watched Pod.

This has nothing to do with anything, but this girl walking down the street had a GAP shirt where gap was all in rainbow. I thought it read "gay" and I was like "a little on point but you be you sister"

Gay And Proud after all.

Just realized watching pod bad choice. Thankfully i havent claimed yet. I need someone who no one visited. Maybe JJ? I doubt anyone visited him. I could say you. We know no one visited you. But why would I? Could also say visovics. We know pod visited him and it explains why I went so hard after him.

Dont say me. Who would you have chosen to watch if you were town D1? You need a reason.

LOL @ JJ

Yeah this is an amusing turn of events. If we can get him lynched we are in decent shape, although I'm a bit concerned that I'll take some blowback the next day. Whateves though.

Oh god if he trades you the scanner...

I think I might say I watched thetoad, because he was the hammer vote which displayed a willingness to hammer scum
... that works. And watcher shouldnt be claiming which explains your reluctance.

Then I will be a rather ineffective bodyguard wont I, what with having no weapon and all!

If I use it on JJ I get shot by Vis at night. However, if you and the unknown make your kills then it will be 5 alive and 2 of you with multiple survivors waiting. You just need to convince one of them to turn and win.

Though looks like I might unfortunately run out of time to use the scanner.... How unfortunate...

So we know Vis, Bike, GNips and JJ are telling the truth. That leaves Cal and CNinja. I think Cal is the other SK. If Onid trades I should take out JJ with it and commit suicide that way. Its better we get lynched/nk'd than our unknown comrade.

Likely. I wouldn't be shocked. Although I'm a little surprised there's not a competing scum faction. I thought for a bit vis and gnips might be scum.

Wouldnt balance. I knew as soon as I read the role, but thought your scum hunting would be improved if I didnt tell you that we are the scum.

I once played a game where it took to D4 to realise I was the only scum and it was a vig doing the other kills. Made it much easier to be town when I genuinely thought I was hunting..

That was my first thought also, but then I was confused by who made the kill yesterday? I guess its our rogue sk. But since we shared a kill I thought maybe he had a role like mine where he didnt have a kill yet.

You didnt have a kill till I shot you? What items do you have?

Nothing. I had to guess who the serial killers were. If i guess them all correctly i joined them and gained access to the kill command. I was basically a goon with no chat.

Im actually wondering if i should just let them catch me here. We dont want to lose cal if we can avoid it, I think I'm most expendable.

Haha that sucks. Lucky I shot you.

Looks like Cal dies. (Go ask if that is a hammer vote).

Tomorrow it will be 5 vs 2 with Bike dead.

I call CNinja scum. He gets lynched. 4 vs 2

Vis kills me. You kill Gnips. 2 vs 1.

Good odds of convincing one of them to turn on the other.

So i claimed, if you think it makes sense you can bus me here for cred.

On the bright side, if ninja is our third he now KNOWS hes with me.

Oh holy shit they might even no lynch. I wish I knew who cal was going to kill. Oh by the way, fun theory...maybe we are wrong about cal and cninja is an arsonist. Also I cannot believe we wound up with a no lynch.

So...who should we

No lynch at L-1. I am handily not about.

Gnips helpfully wrote this,

“If Onid die, Gink and Cal can't be confirmed.

If Vis dies, JJ can't be confirmed.

If I die, then no biggie really, my action is in the day.

If CNinja dies, then he takes somebody with him, and that can only be somebody other than me, you, JJ, Vis, Cal, or Gink.

If Gink dies, you don't get your item.

If Cal dies, nothing

If Bike dies, he's kept us alive another town, RIP.

If JJ dies, it frees us from a dilemma, and clears Vis

If Mad dies, that removes the other issue.”

I think we need one person to shoot Bike and one to shoot Vis and hope for the best. Can Cal be relied on to shoot Bike?

I am asking Biggs about the order of trading vs kills. I cant be killing with a knife, but a creative kill flavour would be useful.

Except we have no idea who our third party murderer might be. And then when/if Bikes shows up dead, who am I saying I watched? Vis? GNIPs?

Watch Bike. Claim you saw CNinja. Hope for the best!

Or alternatively claim you saw Vis? If there are two kills tonight then it will be believable that he is scum who didnt get to shoot....

In which case, we dont shoot Bike as he is the obvious person for you to watch.

Vis is dangerous though because if we can't get him swinging he kills me. And I don't think people will believe me over him in this one. Its a tricky pickle. I need to look at it this evening, but my wife is taking me out for steak after which I'll have to repay her with meat. Man meat.

Its my penis is what in saying.

You know it would be pretty funny if cal shot me.

I am gonna shoot GNips. His vote is too powerful.

I think thats the right choice.

This is going to be fun.

I hope cal shoots vis or bike.

It dawned on me that Onid could be our comrade. He is a hero if so.

Possible. Did he wind up with Ovi's spice? Only a couple hours left, did we have to do the hash-kill thing here or did you just pm biggs

I pm'd him hours ago.

Well its just about time for daybreak to sweep the land. Lets see what we've sown.

Wtf just happened.

GNips had a bulletproof jacket. Go quiet for a bit, might need you to claim you saw JJ visit him.

Damn it. I posted already. Sorry.

Noo

Id like to know where the fuck nips got that jacket. There are so many fucking protections in this game.

Well we are still fine probably as long as bike stunts doesnt come on and say he was in fact visited in the night.

Play it cool. I have made the play. JJ has to die, the only one unaccounted for.

I think Onid blatantly knows whats going on :)

Hahaha just realised town should no lynch and follow the cop. There cannot be 3 scum with only 6 players left. So they are better of waiting till tomorrow. Come on GNips figure it out!

Oh hah! That would be a clever play. Which would work great for us.

Fucking JJ throwing shade our way. Just because he's right doesn't make it any less hurtful.

Holy shit if they believe this cpr doc shit you deserve a fucking academy award

It would hurt more if there was something in it. This would all be a lot trickier if JJ was playing his role!

Just need Gnips to drop a vote on JJ and its game over.

Do not hammer fast. 2 vs 2 is not straightforward with GNips ability and the spices. Remain in character.

Stay on target...

JJ just activated your trap card. Of course you didnt mention it before. Why let scum know you had a doc like role? But you've been pretty clear about not suspecting me the whole game. And as for me, I simply didn't know. You don't get a notification you were protected.

Yup. Its too easy. I can trade with Onid too so he should hammer Gnips for us tomorrow.

Just seen your comment about my cpr doc role claim. Well I said it was going to be audacious! So ridiculously terrible and unlikely that it must be true. Plus its the only explanation for why there werent two kills N1. :)

Stop scummarining ya scummy git.

You just did too well...

JJ is gonna nightkill me now and its all your fault. Oh whats that? JJ isnt a killer, well shuks.

So we kill Bike. Then both catch JJ in the act, you via watching and me via the scanner. Jobs a good un, home in time for tea.

Or plan B. One of us outright demands Onid votes for JJ as a thankyou for the items. Probably best from me. Hope it doesnt come to that.

Oh this is too good. JJ believes me now. Haha.

Damn sorry when I wrote that it ocured to me too late it was gonna cause a no lynch but i think it could work better for us. We no lynch, kill bikes, i say i saw jj/you scanned jj, we get him swinging, win game sing songs about how awesome and virile we are

You did good. Your persona is very convincing.

I wish Nips would hurry this up and either no-vote or push a lynch. I have to imagine he won't allow the no vote, because he knows someone took a shot at him last night. But I really hope we don't have to sit here in silence for three fucking days while we wait for his hammer ability. Honestly I don't know why he isn't bringing that up to dissuade the novotes.

We want him to hammer. Its one shot.

Only 24 hours to wait..

Well we want him to hammer JJ or Oni. Its considerably less good if he hammers one of us. Even if it is one shot.

Faith, Mad, Faith!

Cheers for dealing with that JJ post. It was his best by a country mile and I had no response.

I think we are in a pretty solid spot right now.

Someone should tell JJ that if you are gonna swing at the king you better kill the king.

Ohhh nice post.

I am struggling to pretend to care now. Just over two hours till hammer time.

Hurry up GNips. Time to lock and load.

Im not sure how to respond to this wording question. I feel like it could be a trap.

HA

Who should we murder? Bike?

Also I think Ovi is trying to block the hammer with his spice to keep the game going.

##Investigate Mad

Oooh lynchproof. Still we just need to kill one. JJ?

Also, fucking seriously?! Lynch Proof! How the fuck were we supposed to win this? Every single person has like four fucking lives! Also I think we need to kill 2? Cuz there are six alive.

Sure. Kill Bikes.

Truthi edited the text, theres hope. I have pm'd my investigation so you do the kill. I want the authentic text just in case.

I pm'd the kill on bike.

And apparently he was wearing a bulletproof vest. This has gotten to be a little bit beyond frustrating.

I dunno, you may need to bus me here, hopefully if jj tags a scum he'll pull a vis and disappear. Then you can shoot bikes and hopefully oni will vote with you, in gratitude for helping him with his win condition. Or maybe we can stall the vote anyway.

Its alright, were still good

You be the hammer ;)

Hammer Ma Boy. Hammer.

(You are asleep I suspect which is a tad unfortunate)

Cannot believe that shit worked. I guess nobody saw truths post pre edit. So...uh...do we think that bikes can/will protect himself?

That is the question. I lean on no. But who knows.

Kill one of GNips or Bike. You vs Bike in a shoot off. Helpful if you win.

Otherwise we can just convince/threaten Onid to vote Gnips.

What did oni send u back in return for power packs?

The radio unit, letting me broadcast all through the night...

You want to warn bikes not to protect gnips, and he can join us in victory? Also perhaps Stan Bush's "You got the touch"

Or not if you think its overly risky.

Sweet. michael bay has nothing on moonbase 2.

Bikes needs to protect someone to win. He hasnt yet.

Oh that poor bastard. Imma shoot him up then. Also next broadcast maybe the "Worst Pirate Song" by Ceann. Could dedicate it to the fallen.

Hehe.

For whats it worth I would shoot Bike too. Investigated Onid.

Sure would love to know the results. I really want for this to be the win. I feel like we've really earned this one.

I hope you have "We Are the Champions" ready to go for if/when we win

Well we have had to work really hard. Its N4 and it was D2 where I started offering deals to 3rd party. No idea how I got away with it

I hadn't planned on night going for so long...

Yeah I wonder if its because Bike hasn't gotten his action in or if its just Biggs being at work.

Its Biggs. You can check the last time someone logged into the forum. Useful for spotting a submarine scum, logging in but not posting.

I try not to. A lot of the time I log in to look with no intention of posting even when I'm town.
