Tagline: “Find the threat. Strike back. Shed what isn’t yours.”

🌌 Purpose
Snake Oil is crafted for witches who refuse to carry what doesn’t belong to them.
Made to hunt down hidden opposition, locate energetic attackers, and return their venom straight back to source, this oil moves like its namesake — silent, precise, and absolutely unforgiving.

Use it when you feel watched, drained, crossed, or stalked by invisible hands.
It coils around curses, gossip, envy, evil eye, or psychic interference and sends it slithering back to whoever spat it your way — no extra effort required.

Perfect for boundary guardians, shadow workers, and anyone sick of playing defense.

🌙 Magickal Properties

Snake Skin Shed — detect enemies, track hostile energy, and send it home with precision.
Domination Herbs — regain control over your path and force opponents to bow.
Wormwood — dissolves malice and exposes unseen threats.
Devil’s Shoestring — tangles their efforts and trips them mid-strike.
Agrimony — flips curses like mirrors and returns them multiplied.
Dragonsblood Resin — seals your aura and scorches incoming attack lines.
Myrrh & Frankincense — stabilize your spirit while you strike back.
Black Salt (optional) — neutralizes lingering poison.

Crystals Suggested: Black Tourmaline (repel), Apache Tear (grief release), Hematite (grounding & shield), Obsidian (truth & severing).

🔮 Suggested Uses

• Anoint the back of the neck, spine, and shadow points to track incoming energy
• Dress black, red, or brown candles for return-to-sender and enemy diversion
• Rub onto petition papers, poppets, or mirror jars
• Use on door frames, phones, wallets, or keys for perimeter defense
• Add one drop to floor washes or mop water to expose hidden opposition
• Pair with: Don't Cross Me, Forcefield, or Army's Revenge oils for amplified impact

⚠️ Disclaimer
External use only.
This is a baneful, return-to-source working — use with intention, grounding, and spiritual responsibility.
Your actions, energy, and outcomes are yours to command.

⚠️ Warning! ⚠️
This oil bites back.
If you're stirring trouble you didn't mean to — Snake Oil WILL expose it.
Not recommended for gentle witches, passive healers, or nosy bystanders.
