Subject line: I hung up the phone and I just stared...

I felt that little dopamine getting bigger in me as I was reading the messages I got.

"Is she serious telling me all these lovely things?"

I understood that she was serious when we met to talk. She was truly in love. I could see in the way she would look at me and how red she got when I told her that I felt the same.

This may look like a normal happy romantic story but this wasn't the true beginning of all.

She was my crush for 9 months, I swear she didn't know who I was before...

Changing into a confident, charismatic, and playful man made a lot of big turns for me but I didn't expect this one.

With these lessons, dating my crush became possible.
