

Feminist Mentor-Teacher Award

To be considered for the award, please provide the following:

Part 1:

1. A nomination letter, not to exceed two pages; can be submitted by a student(s), colleague(s) or as a self-nomination.

Part 2:

1. A teaching philosophy statement, not to exceed two pages; this statement should address how you (a) model feminist ideas, (b) engage in community powersharing, and (c) detail your records of achievement.
2. Evidence of teaching and mentoring excellence, not to exceed ten pages; these can be any of the following:
 - recommendation letters (letters from current/former students are highly encouraged)
 - sample assignments
 - teaching evaluations (submit as a summary)
 - any other materials that indicate teaching and mentoring excellence
3. A condensed curriculum vita focused on teaching/mentoring, not to exceed 2 pages; your CV should highlight feminist ideas, community powersharing, and records of achievement.

Please adhere to the page limits specified for each section. The committee will not review any material exceeding these limits, which may negatively impact your application's evaluation.
