

TATIANA POSTOLOVSKAYA

Tatiana Postolovskaya (b. 1992) is an interdisciplinary artist and painter based in Saint Petersburg, Russia.

Her practice explores the balance between order and spontaneity, structure and freedom through abstract and eclectic compositions. With a background in academic art and a strong interest in collective and social projects, she creates works that invite the viewer into a dialogue between form, rhythm, and color. Tatiana's artistic language is influenced by dance, movement, and the contrasts of contemporary life. She has participated in numerous exhibitions, festivals, and educational initiatives across Russia, Europe, and the UK, and is an active member of the art community On the Edge of Color.
