

Thursday's Thoughts

Thursday, November 2, 2023

Good evening Highland High School families I hope that this finds you well and safe, this is Mr. Zack, and here are your Thursday's Thoughts for November 2, 2023. There are 6 items of interest to follow. If you miss any part of the message, please visit the Highland High School webpage on our Live Feed where there is a link to view this in its entirety as well as a link having been emailed to your primary email account.

1. HHS Apparel Store is open again for your holiday needs. Please check the link on our website or the emailed version of Thursday Thoughts for more information.
2. If your student has worked on a farm at any time over the last two years, they may be eligible for some benefits. Check out the information included below.
3. PSAT Score Release Information:
Students who took the PSAT earlier this month will have access to their scores via their College Board student account beginning Monday, November 6th. Students who provided a phone number to access the Big Future Connections app will receive a text message once scores are available.

Students can access or create their student account HERE. Please remember to have students use a personal email address, not their school email address. Students are encouraged to note their login credentials for future use.

Grade 9 Parents: Check out this helpful website:

4. Tuesday, November 7th will be an elearning day. Please see the schedule below or go to our website for schedule and times.
5. Don't forget to change your clocks back this weekend!
6. Don't forget the 2024 yearbooks are on sale. Send $55 cash or check payable to Highland High School to Ms. Terrell in room 326 to avoid the service fee. Price increases soon.

That concludes our Thursday's Thoughts, thanks for listening, be safe, and be well.
