1975 BLACK BEARS

Coach Paul Stoyell's '75 team finished just below .500 (5-7), but pulled off the biggest upset of the year in New England when the Bears defeated Yankee Conference champion Vermont in the final game of the season. The Maine lineup included Ted Woodbrey, a two-line all-New England selection and one of the top goal scorers in UM history. Front Row, left to right: Jamie Parker, Jeff Stevens, Chuck Stair, Joey Costa, Co-Capt. Bill Leithiser and Mike Barden, Dave Hoskins, Brian Peterson, Peter Halligan, and Craig Conover. Back Row, left to right: Asst. Coach Mike Berticelli (who eventually became head coach at Notre Dame), Rusty Keene, Ted Woodbrey, Andy Holt, Paul Richards, Dave Jeffrey, Steve Mann, Mark Mogensen, Scott Smith, Joe Malicky, Nick Gaudio, Phil Torsney, Trainer Peter Henderson, and Coach Stoyell.
