

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY CELL (EOC)

PREAMBLE:

St. Francis College, Koramangala, Bengaluru is committed to providing equal opportunities to all its students, teaching and non-teaching staff members irrespective of their race, gender, religion, caste, disability, or socio-economic background. The Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) aims to promote a culture of inclusivity, diversity, and fairness within the institution, ensuring that no one is discriminated against or marginalized based on their identity or circumstances and also ensures the equal representation of an individual within the institution.

VISION:

To cultivate an inclusive, diverse, and empowering environment where all individuals, regardless of their background or identity, are provided with equal opportunities to succeed and thrive academically, socially, professionally and uplift humanity.

MISSION:

1. To foster a college culture that promotes equality, inclusivity, and respect for diversity, ensuring that every students, teaching and non-teaching staff member has access to the resources and opportunities they need to excel.
2. To eliminate discrimination and biases based on race, gender, caste, religion, disability, or socio-economic background, by enforcing fair practices and providing support for underrepresented and marginalized groups.
3. To raise awareness about equal opportunities, rights, and responsibilities, and to educate the college community on creating a fair and respectful atmosphere through orientation, workshops and other programmes.
4. To provide a safe, accessible, and supportive environment that encourages personal growth, academic achievement, and social integration for all members of the college.
5. To implement proactive measures and affirmative action to bridge gaps and ensure that disadvantaged groups have a voice and the resources to overcome challenges they may face.

OBJECTIVES:

The main objectives of the Equal Opportunity Cell are:

1. To create a harmonious, inclusive, and supportive learning and working environment.
2. To ensure that all students, teaching and non-teaching staff members enjoy equal access to opportunities within the institution.
3. To monitor and address issues related to discrimination, harassment, and biases.
4. To raise awareness about equal opportunity rights and responsibilities among all members of the college.
5. To provide necessary assistance and support to individuals who may face discrimination or disadvantages.

SCOPE:

The Equal Opportunity Cell shall apply to:

- All students enrolled in undergraduate and post graduate programs.
- All faculty members, administrative staff, and other employees of the college.
- Visitors, guests, and external stakeholders engaging with the college.

KEY PRINCIPLES:

1. Non-Discrimination: The college shall not discriminate against any individual or group based on their race, caste, religion, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, or socio-economic status.
2. Inclusivity: The college is committed to fostering an inclusive and diverse environment that respects individuals' differences and promotes equality.
3. Accessibility: The college will ensure that all its physical, academic, and social spaces are accessible to all, including individuals with disabilities.
4. Equal Treatment: All individuals will be treated with respect, dignity, and fairness, with equal access to opportunities, support, and resources.

CORE FUNCTIONS OF THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY CELL:

- To ensure equity and equal opportunity to the community at large in the college and bring about social inclusion.
- To make efforts to sensitize the academic community regarding the problems associated with social exclusion as well as aspirations of the marginalized communities.
- To help individuals or a group of students belonging to the disadvantaged section of society to contain the problems related to discrimination.
- To look into the grievances of the weaker section of society and suggest amicable solution to their problems.
- To disseminate the information related to schemes and programmes for the welfare of the socially weaker section as well as notifications/memoranda, office orders of the Government, or other related agencies/organizations issued from time to time.
- To enhance the diversity among the students, teaching and non-teaching staff population and at the same time eliminate the perception of discrimination.
- To create a socially congenial atmosphere for academic interaction and for the growth of healthy interpersonal relationships among the students coming from various social backgrounds.
- To establish coordination with the Government and other agencies/organizations to mobilize academic and financial resources to aid students of the disadvantaged groups.
- To organize periodic meetings to monitor the progress of different schemes. (28)
- To adopt measures to ensure due share of utilization by SC/ST/OBC/PH in admissions, recruitments (teaching and non-teaching posts) and to improve their performances.
- To sensitize the college on the problems of SC/ST and other disadvantaged groups.

PROCEDURE FOR FILING COMPLAINTS:

1. Any individual who feels they have been subjected to discrimination or harassment can submit a written complaint to the Equal Opportunity Cell coordinator or to the Principal or Director.
2. The EOC will acknowledge the complaint and initiate an investigation under the guidance of Principal and Director.

3. A confidential and impartial inquiry will be conducted, and necessary action will be taken based on the findings.
4. The complainant and the accused will be given a fair opportunity to present their case.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION:

To address disparities and ensure equal opportunities for all, the college will:

1. Provide special provisions, support, and scholarships for underrepresented or disadvantaged groups such as Scheduled Castes (SC), Scheduled Tribes (ST), Other Backward Classes (OBC), economically weaker sections (EWS), women, and persons with disabilities.
