

List of Resources

As with everything, Debate is always evolving. Some of these may be outdated. Nonetheless, I would recommend joining all of the community resources to stay involved.

1. Community Connections

- a. Debate Outreach Discord: offers free debate resources, programs, tournaments, and opportunities for aspiring debaters.
- b. PF Discord: Community wide Discord server.
- c. Debate Reddit: Community wide Reddit server.
- d. PF Debate Reddit: Community wide Reddit server.

2. Prep Stealing (this is a good thing!)

- a. Case List Wiki is an open list of real, verified, and disclosed cases from debaters across the country.
- b. Logos debate has a ton of useful cards which can help build up your block/back files.
- c. Circuit Debater is a website where debaters (PF & LD) will post past cases and sometimes blocks as examples for the community to offer guidance. Debaters can use this resource to see what high quality cases look like.
- d. debatev.com is an online evidence database designed for PF and Policy debaters.

3. Briefs/Video Explanations

- a. Learn Public Forum is a website that offers resources to teach debaters about Public Forum Debate specifically, such as how to be successful in PF, coaching and debate basics.
- b. PF Videos is a YouTube channel with dozens of videos on a wide variety of topics related to PF.
