BASIC DETAILS

- Wedding Date: June 2024
- Venue: TBD (We have a short list of venues we'd like your guidance/advice on, which includes River Roast, The Arbory, Rockwell on the River, City Winery, City View Loft, Fairlie, and Galleria Marchetti)
- Ceremony start time (1.5 hours before sunset is recommended for best photos): Around 4/5pm

- Number of guests you are inviting: About 200
- Number of guests you estimate will attend: About 160
- Number of Wedding Attendants for Partner One (traditionally “Bridesmaids”): 8-9
- Number of Wedding Attendants for Partner Two (traditionally “Groomsmen”): 8-9
- Is your budget flexible? If yes, please explain your parameters: It is flexible, but we would like to stay as close to 60k as possible
- Do you have any commitments that will impact planning? (grad school, 10+ day vacation, travel for work, taking a break in June because your sister is getting married, etc.)
  - Life changes and that is why we are here. Please inform us of any changes in the planning timeline as they occur. Medical emergencies are the number one reason for a sudden change.

We have a 9 day trip to Prague & Germany from this September 16th to September 25th that may impact our initial planning, but we'll be ready to go after that!

FAMILY AND FRIEND DYNAMICS

- If any parents are divorced, please describe your expectations for their interactions on the wedding day. N/A
- Do you have any guests that you anticipate being a challenge in any way? Examples include expressing unwanted or unnecessary opinions, not following instructions, trying to make an uninvited toast, wanting in the getting ready room, moving décor to their liking, etc. I can't think of anyone that I anticipate being a challenge currently.
- Do you have any concerns about alcohol for anyone? Not really. We are inviting folks that like to drink, but nothing that concerns me.
- Are any key players not attending the wedding? We want to ensure your vendors are aware of this so they can be sensitive to this on your day. Luke's grandmas won't be able to attend due to not being able to travel, but this isn't something we feel sensitive about.
- Do your family or a group of guests speak another language or have cultural expectations we either need to plan around or be prepared to discuss if they ask about or give pushback to your choices on the wedding day? Nothing comes to mind!
- Are there friends or family that you anticipate wanting to help in the planning process and/or on the wedding day? What are your desired parameters or boundaries for this?

Mother and father of the bride. Would want mother more involved and don't feel the need to have parameters/boundaries set for her involvement, as she's pretty communicative with/close to me (the bride).

- Is there anything else you would like us to know? We're excited to get started!

MEDICAL

While we are aware that your family is privy to your medical history, if something happens, we would like to be a sober-minded guide in an emergency. This information is considered personal and confidential. It is not required to share but if it can assist in your planning (speaker spacing for pacemakers, etc.), please let us know!

- Food allergies dietary restrictions for Couple or other VIPs: Groom is allergic to peanuts and tree nuts. He is also mildly allergic to avocado.
- Medical Conditions of Couple or VIP guests (especially those affected by heat, lighting, sound and electrical equipment): Brother and groom both have asthma.

BOOKING PROCESS

- What other planning companies did you consider when interviewing for a coordinator or planner? An Event Less Ordinary
- What did you like about them? We liked that they were relaxed, straightforward, and knowledgeable about the field.
- Why did you choose BURST Event Co? We read raving reviews about you all and loved your client portal!
