

THE PAW-POST

OCT/26/2018
CHARACTER HIGHLIGHT:
SYLEN!

By TC, Sera, Mr-Pink, KampferWolf, CATHulu, Roy & ImpXimon

Happy end of October already! Boy, as 2018 winds down, it sure seems like it's going faster. <_< So this week the Paw-Post passed 4 years old, and still going strong! It just comes at the cost of my sanity. :P This was a heck of a busy last week for me - the list of things done included working on the underside front half of my second (older) vehicle doing some prep work for its first Krown oil spray. Up in Canada, if you want a vehicle to last, you gotta try to protect it against the ravages of winter, so existing rust (since I bought it used) had to be filed off, converted and covered. Also did some other painting, cleaning and took apart the 15 year old dryer to figure out why it wasn't heating anymore - blown thermal fuse, so off to the electronics store to get a replacement fuse and new thermostat. I like repairing stuff - it's a lost art. :3 Got the vehicles both oil-sprayed as well, and picked up a new set of winter tires and rims for the older one. Now that I've done all this, we'll probably get little or no snow this winter. *laughs*

Is there anybody out there also excited about Castlevania Season 2 on Netflix? It was my favorite game when I was a kid (goat). And I will admit some of the monsters were kind of sexy to me. In other news: TC's gigantic paws smell!

It is that sweet spot in southern Ontario where the flies and biting things are mostly dead, but it hasn't started snowing yet. The leaves are gold and red, and it's still hovering a few degrees above freezing. If you're lucky you get about 2 - 3 weeks of this a year and it's perfect for riding when it's not raining.

Speaking of rain, this is also mud season! Yay! And with all the horses almost fully into their winter coats a lot of them who aren't blanketed look like they've just crawled through the trenches at Dunkirk. Fun times for grooming. I still love it, even I'm shaking dust out of my hair and coat at the end of the day.

To conclude, apropos of nothing I present to you the strangest 13 minutes I have ever laughed at....this week.

Most Pawesome Picture

<https://www.furaffinity.net/view/29142817/>

"Messy Paw Indulgence" by Kazutsu

(C4 -- sfw -- m | m -- mexican wolf, panda -- foot-worship)

Ahhhhh Danny, always getting some nice paws to enjoy. :) In this case, a panda-hybrid with very cute little blue pads! Now only does Kazu draw the footpaws SO well, but we get treated to two extra detail panels showing more of just how much Danny is enjoying those soles, and how much Riley is enjoying offering them up. ^_^ I love that this one is all about the paws in every image, and again, Kazu just draws them SO well. And once again, there are a few pictures that were in the running for Most-Pawesome this week, so I think you'll really enjoy the VVP tags below as well.

Mr-Pink's Random Music Pick

Myuu - Wind's Wreck - 2012

Been listening to creepypastas again for the first time in over 5 years. I've been enjoying it and this song is my favourite of all the background ones.

TCs Random Music Pick

Weird Al Yankovic - "CNR" - 2009

Haaaaaa - you gotta watch this one for the video as much as the song. It's SO well done! I haven't laughed that much in a music video in ages (and yes, I don't know how I missed this, but I JUST discovered this song this week). A parody of the White Stripe's "Dead Leaves and the Dirty Ground", this song was created as a tribute to Charles Nelson Reilly, and hooooooo boy, what an awesome tribute. It's weird, it's funny, and it's so beautifully Weird Al.

CAThulu's Halloween Movie Pick

Trick R Treat \(2007\)

This is one of my favourite movies of the season, and so much fun! There are four short stories that are all connected together, each of them darkly funny and telling why some traditions shouldn't be forgotten.

  - <https://www.furaffinity.net/view/29151580/>
    - Awesome to see 3DiNoZ doing some personal artwork of his own fursona. ^_^
Very cute paws, and nicely offered up in a clean pic. -- TC

- (C1 -- sfw-ish -- f | f -- cow, snake -- foot-worship) - Very, VERY Pawesome!
  - <https://www.furaffinity.net/view/29166639/>
    - The expressions really make this picture (along with the sexy feet, of course). The cow lady looks so humble out it - perhaps never realizing just how attractive her feet could be, or maybe how enjoyable it'd be to have them worshipped. Maybe a bit of both. Either way, I think this is the first time I've seen a snake and cow pairing! Very nice. -- TC

  - <https://www.furaffinity.net/view/29152481/>
    - So, the image isn't so much paw-centric as tickle-centric, BUT, I really love how GahoWolf portrays Atta's intoxication with the laughter of Dee Dee. I think that's a great way to show the sorta mind-dominating but amazing high that playing into one's kink gives. :) Very neat. -- TC

    - Okay, I'm the first to admit I'm not a fan of the green-smoke scent thing (my brain cannot seem to unsee that as a negative) BUT, the idea is awesome. Both these ladies have such gorgeous feet, and it's so awesome to think of it just totally disrupting the place. But hey - while that clears out the ones that hate it, you're left with the few of us that are just in awe of it. :3 -- TC

Some Q&A

(TC) Hy Sylen & Sylox - welcome to the Paw-Post, have a seat and lets get started. *smiles* My my, where to start, other than jumping right at the paws. *chuckles* So, you're a size-shifter; how did that come to be?

(Sylen) *Takes a seat across from. Cool, can't believe this is actually happening. Being apart of this is an honor, thanks for having us. So how did I become a size shifter that enjoys a good bit of rampaging? Well I'd like to say that it's something I was born with and runs in my family, although I'm apparently the only one to have it in a couple of generations, unfortunately. Naturally because I am very, very mischievous, so it only made sense that I would go a bit crazy and have some fun at the expense of others. I can grow or shrink on a whim, it's really fun actually. *grins* I wanted to, I could grow to 300 feet tall and have you conduct this interview on top of a roof. *looks at Sylox* Don't think Sylox would mind or even notice, he's too busy tapping on his phone. Pssh, figures, he's such a nerd.

(Sylox): Huh, what now? *looks at TC and Sylen* Ohh, yeah you do that, I'll...uhh...yeah.

(TC) Apart from the unscheduled urban renewal efforts being a macro can cause, are there other things that you like using your size-shifting power for?

(Sylen): Not really. You'd think since I'm 5'5" I'd use it to grow myself to a much more average height but alas, I merely use my powers to grow and rampage in poor, unsuspecting cities.

(TC) And uh....curious question, you mentioned you can shift the other way too? Like can you get really tiny? If so - ever done anything interesting as a micro?

(Sylen): Of course! If I wanted to, I could shrink down to the size of an ant or maybe even smaller. Have I done it before? No, I haven't but I've heard stories from others with similar powers who've done it before. I can only imagine the hijinks that have ensued from shrinking one's self to the size of a common house fly or bug.

(TC) Well there you go - lots of potential new adventures await! Now of course, folks know you're here because you have some really handsome footpaws, and from the images we've seen, you aren't shy about showing them off or having them attended to. So upfront, what's your favourite thing to do with your paws (or when it comes to paws) - give or receive?

(Sylen): *Grins while looking down at his paws* I guess you could say I'm an equal opportunity wolf, heh. Don't get me wrong I love having folks service my paws, making sure they clean every single inch and enjoy their perfect scent. Nothing too musky or obscene, I do take care of them as its important to have well pampered and cared for paws. And of course, I make sure to accessorize, I certainly can't forget my toe ring.

*Removes the footpaw from a flip flop revealing the toe ring* I just love it, I got it when I was 18 and made sure to engrave my last name on it – that way micros and cities can see the name of the macro that towers over them. *chuckles darkly*

So tell me TC, my paws are perfect, aren't they? *wiggles toes in flip flops*. That said, I'd be lying if I didn't say I also enjoy having a pair to worship myself, ya know? Heh, Sylox is the same way, though I think he's more into receiving, ain't that right? *Glares at Sy who's still busy tapping on his phone*

(Sylox): Ohh, yeah I love paws...well feet...actually I love both. I guess you could say that I came to love feet first and that translated into loving paws as well. That's probably where Sy gets it from. It's actually one of the few things we share in common, I guess. But yeah, in terms of feet, I pretty much lean towards receiving.

(TC) *Rumbles softly, staring at the pretty toes and ring* Mmmf... LOVE that toe-ring, yes. Accents those beautiful feet so nicely. Now, we often see folks wanting to worship or just already enjoying your awesome pads and toes - what's your favourite form of worship/pampering on your paws?

(Sylen): I love, love, love having my paws licked. See, it's one thing to just torture a micro and slowly tease them, it's another to force a micro, macro or even someone of the same size to lick my paws. Even better is when they press their nose to my paws while they lick; a good way to inhale the scent while you partake in my glorious digits. Quite frankly that is the best way to enjoy my paws.

(TC) *whines* Mmmf....micro or not, that sounds like the best way to enjoy those nice paws to me. *grins* Do you enjoy it best when it's your friends that are sharing in your feet or more with strangers - why is that?

(Sylen): I honestly have no qualms with anyone partaking in my paws so long as they aren't some creepers. I'm an open book and just want to enjoy some paw action. Besides, if they try anything, I'll just grow in size and smush them.

(TC) Eep....uh, well, good point! If you were to ask the folks that chase after your sexy soles what they like best, what do you think their top answers would be? Or maybe they've even told you as much. *chuckles*

(Sylen): I've uhh seen the comments to some of the artwork that Sylox gets of me and I'd have to say it's probably due to the overall sex appeal. The situations I put them in, the way I display them, the attractiveness of the toe ring; it creates an overall image of near perfection, I guess? They're quite seductive and entice folks. I'm sure many would jump at the chance to worship them if the comments are to be believed.

(TC) Ooohhh yes - quite sure many would. They are super-attractive visually, in a tactile sense and an olfactory one too. Kinda got all the bases covered! And what about yourself? What do you like most about footpaws (and be as descriptive as you wish)?

(Sylen): What I love about footpaws comes from how intimate they can be. Like, sharing some fun time with a bro by 69ing with paws can be so fun. I guess I also am drawn to the overall dominance they can bring in certain situations. Whether I'm using mine to step on and/or humiliate a micro, or if I'm being forced to service a friend's paws, the dominance factor can't be overlooked.

(TC) You know, I like that you see the balance in the dominance - IE, giving or receiving. But yeah, all very enjoyable if into paws. *smiles* If you have to pick a favourite type of paw, and/or maybe a favourite species of footpaw, what would you say tops the list?

(Sylen): Based on that classification thingy I totally didn't just google on my phone, I'd say I'm into C3 paws. Canine paws are definitely my favorites.

(TC) *blinks* You can actually Google it now? Wow. Er, anyway, nice! Love that one most myself. How would you suggest someone get to know you and get on the shortlist to go pamper those nice soles of yours?

(Sylen): Well you could pledge your undying servitude to my paws for starters. *smirks* But seriously, I'm a pretty chill wolf, love a good joke and am an open book. Just be yourself and things will go pretty smoothly. As far as getting on the short-list, once I've known you for a while, just ask and maybe we can work something out. I get it, I can be a dominant, somewhat narcissistic, mischievous wolf bent on causing as much destruction as possible, but I'm not all bad. Worst thing I've done to a friend is eaten them out of house and home – literally, I ate their house. Don't give me those weird looks you two, I was hungry that afternoon!

(Sylox): I love meeting new people and the best thing you can do is be yourself. I certainly don't bite and enjoy meeting new folks. I can be pretty shy, but once I get to know someone and feel comfortable around them, I tend to open up. Who knows, that friendship may develop into something more.

(TC) Okay, so outside of paws, you also love video games and fried chicken (think that's the first someone's specified that in particular, heh). So would the ultimate good time with friends be a shared game night with all that food? Or what sorta thing would be your favourite way to chill?

(Sylen): Hell yeah, I love video games and fried chicken, TC. Pair that with some mountain dew and hot sauce and you've got a good meal! Say, what's your favorite game? Mine are FPS titles if I'm being honest. RPGs are a close second. As far as a favorite way to chill, yeah you can go with the classic, game and pizza night. You can also go with some rampaging in your local city; nothing beats you and some friends having some fun at the expense of a city.

(TC) Unless you're that city, heh. Awesome though - sounds good, and my favourite game? Mmmf....hard to pick a single one so....

RPGs: Morrowind and Skyrim - hands down.

MMORPGs: Guild Wars 2

Side-scroller classics: Contra (1986 NES original)

Now uh, got any other questions you wanted to throw back my way?

(Sylox): Yes, uhh how long have you been working on the Paw Post and what about your paws? What exactly are they like? Soft, ticklish, etc.?

(TC) The Paw-Post is (as of this week) 4 years old! Though unofficially, it can be traced back a touch further as I used to do it as an email to friends for a few months prior. It started looking a bit more like it's current layout by mid 2015, and switched to the Google-Doc format in April of 2016.

As for my paws, heh, well....*props up his right footpaw*....they are unique. The ventral scaling from the heel to my ball pads is quite tough - it feels smooth and soft, like the underbelly of a snake - but warm, as I'm warm-blooded. It's quite tough though - far more so than human skin. The pinkish pads are a little more textured, and very plump. They're more warm than the ventral scales, and more squishy to the touch, though equally resilient. Then the fur...well, that's just like most fur - very soft and well kept. *smiles* I keep them exceptionally well cared for - never walk in the dirt or anything like that (IE, have flip flops, boots, whatever) as I would rather nothing contaminate them. I like to keep their scent 100% natural and uninfluenced by unknowns. As for ticklish, they are not. I can't stand light-touch, in fact, it's extremely uncomfortable and would like result me punching someone if they didn't stop immediately when I ask. *grins toothily*

Alrighty! Before re wrap up, is there anything you would like to say to your watchers, fans and the readers of The Paw-Post? Go for it!

(Sylox): I just want to first thank you for letting me and Sy be a part of this TC, it means so much to the both of us that we get the chance to be apart of something as cool as the Paw Post. I'd also like to thank everyone who watches me on FA, Twitter and other sites, you guys rock. Thank you for the support and endless amount of joy the artwork I get and stories I write bring you. Finally, I want to thank all of the friends I've made since joining the fandom, without you all, I don't know where I'd be honestly. Thanks for all the wonderful memories, look forward to making more in the future!

(Sylen): Ohh yeah, I got something to say *clears throat*. Vote for me for Furry Magazine's, coolest macro alive contest or else I'll come to your city and destroy it. Muahahahaha!!!

(TC) *blinks at Sylen's comment* Okay then! Heh - though if the second avatar is any indication, that doesn't seem like a bad fate. XD Alright y'all! Pop on over to Sylox's page and check out his gallery for more pics of Sylex and his mischievous adventures. :)

That's a wrap for this week's Paw-Post - hope you all enjoyed it, and see you again next month for more! Have a great weekend all, and have a Happy Halloween!

TC
